James A. Pryor, 17, Ephrata, was treated Wednesday for a fracture of the left shoulder suffered while wrestling.

CIVIL RIGHTS DISCUSSED BY CHURCHWOMEN

Lutheran Church Women from the Maryland Synod, seeking solutions to human and civil rights problems, Wednesday afternoon were told that the Christian church must face up to the fact that "moral force must proceed legal force." Delegates from 175 congregations in Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia this afternoon concluded a three-day convention at Gettysburg College.

At the end of the meeting the committee decided to set up an eight-week seminar for "100 leaders of the county" to consider changes in the county and what, if anything, should be done about them.

TO ASK REPRESENTATIVES

County Agent Thomas E. Pipe was asked to send out letters from his office to the county's Chambers of Commerce, Junior Chambers of Commerce, the various service clubs, various farm organizations, industrial organizations, utilities, township supervisors and borough councils.

Each of the organizations will be asked to name not more than two members to attend the "leadership school" to be held for eight weeks starting in September.

County Commissioners Harrison G. Fair and G. Edwin Motter, who attended Wednesday's session, agreed to send a letter to the same groups stating their belief that such a series of discussions and study would be "helpful in meeting the problems of the county's present and future."

NEED FOR KNOWLEDGE

Dr. Wilmer Bell, director of adult education, Baltimore schools, was the moderator. Participants were Mrs. Harrison Bryant, wife of the pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore; the Rev. L. Crosby Deaton, pastor of Holy Comforter Lutheran Church, Baltimore, and Parren Mitchell, executive secretary of the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations.

Dr. Bell emphasized the need for knowledge, attitude and skill in handling human relations problems facing the Christian world today. He said, "Religion must be compatible with civil rights and each congregation should have a racially open ministry. There is a great need for responsible people, black and white, to get to know each other."

He listed essential human rights principles as "the right to speak out, to debate, to contest, the right to individual protection and the opportunity to be yourself," so long as it does not infringe upon the rights of others. He defined civil rights as "the right of every citizen to the rights provided under the Constitution."

CHANGE ATTITUDE

The delegates were urged to "find the problems in your neighborhood and study them one at a time in an effort to combat discrimination." Mitchell said, "There must be a mass change of

MAN FINED $25 FOR BEER CANS

Arrest of a Jacksonville, N.C., man on a charge of throwing beer cans in Marsh Creek at Natural Dam Wednesday night led to disclosure that the habit of tossing cans in creeks by drinkers has not ceased.

Marshall Edward Batchelor, 29, Jacksonville, N.C., paid a fine of $25 and costs before Justice of the Peace John Whitman on the beer can tossing charge Wednesday near midnight.

Cumberland Twp. Officer Bernard V. Miller Sr. and Fred Green of the Natural Dam park committee told the justice that despite efforts to discourage the practice by arresting all caught tossing cans in the creek weekly cleaning operations are still needed and from nine to 10 barrels of cans are removed each week.

The effort to keep people from tossing articles in the creek is based on use of the creek for swimming. Sharp objects can cut swimmers' feet. As part of the campaign numerous receptacles for disposal of the cans, bottles, etc., have been placed throughout the park.

Fines for tossing cans, etc., into the creek can range up to $100.

GOP MEETS TONIGHT

Clark E. Spence, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, has called a meeting of all committeemen this evening at 6 o'clock in the court room of the courthouse. Officers and committees will be appointed and plans made for the fall campaign. All elected committeemen are urged to attend.

TWO FIRE CALLS

Gettysburg firemen were summoned twice Wednesday afternoon. At 4:24 they were summoned to a grass fire along the railroad near the Peace Light. At 5:22 they were called when a car owned by Richard Sieman caught fire on Baltimore St.

FHS BAND TO PLAY MONDAY FOR FIREMEN

The Fairfield High School Band will play Monday night at the opening of the Gettysburg firemen's festival held as part of the observance of the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. The green and white clad musicians will present a concert of varied selections during the evening at the Gettysburg Recreation Park.

Mayor William G. Weaver, chairman of special events for the anniversary program, in announcing the acceptance by the Fairfield band of an invitation to appear, reported that the Dallas Town Boys and Girls' Band, another favorite of festival attendees, will be at Recreation Park Wednesday evening.

Next Thursday evening the Gettysburg Senior High School Band will present a concert at Recreation Park following the annual battle anniversary parade through the town. July 3 the Littlestown High School band is scheduled to provide the concert.

Mayor Weaver also announced that the Marine Corps School Band of Quantico, which will present a concert there Sunday evening at the annual memorial service, scheduled to be held at 7:30 o'clock, in the Gettysburg High School football field, will arrive here Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The local committee will provide a tour of the battlefield Sunday afternoon for the visiting Marine musicians.

$500 Collision At Intersection

The work of amesiting the southern end of S. Washington St. helped cause an auto accident shortly before noon Wednesday on Steinwehr Ave.

Borough police said Lewis Miller, East Berlin R. 1, driving a beer truck, sought to turn into S. Washington St. from Steinwehr Ave.

When Miller saw the barricades blocking the street because of its reconstruction from the avenue to where the work ended last year near the hospital, he attempted to back into Steinwehr Ave.

When the truck backed, a car operated by Michael C. Wieder, 14 York St., crashed into its rear, causing $500 damage to the left front and side of the Wieder car, none to the truck.

State Certifies New School Units

George W. Hoffman, acting state superintendent of public instruction, has filed in the prothonotary's office certifications creating two new school districts in the county as a result of the recent vote on school mergers.

One establishes Bermudian Springs School District as of July 1, consisting of the former York Springs and Huntington and Readings Twp. districts.

The other establishes the Fairfield Area School District on July 1, consisting of the former Fairfield and Hamilton and Liberty Twp. districts.

WASHINGON (AP) —

President Johnson ordered 200 Marines to join the search today for three civil rights workers missing in Mississippi.

The President's order was announced by George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, who said the Marines were being moved into the search area near Philadelphia, Miss., from Meridian, where he said they had been based.

By MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) —

Fear mounted today among searchers that the three missing civil rights workers may not be found alive.

"It is hard to believe that three people could be just swallowed up without somebody hearing or seeing something," he said. "He has a carte blanche anywhere in Mississippi."

The governor praised Dulles, saying "men like him are here for the purpose of doing good. He has a carte blanche anywhere in Mississippi."

Forty-three Girl Scouts from Newfoundland, N. J., were also guests at the motel Wednesday evening.

"Moon Show" Seen By Half Of The Nation

NEW YORK — The moon hid behind the earth's shadow Wednesday night, putting on a rare heavenly show for half the United States and for much of the rest of the world.

The total eclipse — which occurs only when the earth moves directly between the sun and a full moon — began at 8:16 p.m. EDT. Its duration was one hour and 41 minutes, the time it takes the moon to move across the cone-shaped shadow measuring about 5,700 miles in diameter.

The far west, Alaska and Hawaii missed the spectacle entirely. The best seats for the show were in the east, but observers in the central states and as far west as a line running from Bismarck, N.D., through Tucson, Ariz., had an opportunity to watch at least part of it.

The next total eclipse is scheduled for December 18. This one will be visible throughout the United States except for Hawaii and parts of Alaska.

PLAN SEMINAR ON CHANGING ADAMS COUNTY

Will Adams County have a 25 per cent increase in population during the next 10 years? Is a united county-wide effort needed to secure new industry? Why are "hundreds" of residents of nearby cities such as Baltimore buying lots in Adams County and what changes will this make in the character of the county? Are 85 per cent of the wells in the county contaminated?

Those and other questions were discussed Wednesday night by the Community Development Committee set up by the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association at a meeting in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

At the end of the meeting the committee decided to set up an eight-week seminar for "100 leaders of the county" to consider changes in the county and what, if anything, should be done about them.

UNAWARE OF CHANGES

Robert Lott, chairman of the committee, said: "Many changes are going on, so gradually that most of us are unaware of them. If we can get 100 people together from throughout the county, representing every phase of the county, then I think we can get an overall picture and perhaps foresee some of the things that are in the county's future and make our plans accordingly."

The committee had some difficulty with the word "planning." Lott said: "Every time planning is mentioned everyone begins to

NEGRO LEADER SAYS SIT-INS INEFFECTIVE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Demonstrations have reached and passed their peak as effective instruments for the promotion of civil rights, a Negro Baptist leader said today.

"They have already come to the point of diminishing returns," Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, said in remarks prepared for delivery before the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Conference.

"They now cost the country and Negro people more in money, morals, energy, attitudes, appreciation and goodwill than they gain in economic, mental, social and cultural progress," he said.

Dr. Jackson said civil rights leaders should emphasize the solution of the problems of civil rights through law and order and the American way of government and life.

If demonstrations such as picnics, sit-ins, wade-ins and lie-ins continue, Dr. Jackson predicted:

"The participants will become more discouraged and frustrated the longer they are forced to wait for what their leaders promised them would come now. They will come to hate both their country and their leaders."

Dr. Jackson also said there is a chance that more demonstrations could lead to popularizing conservative politicians.

This could well make Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., more popular and lead to the defeat of the Johnson administration in the general election, he added.

PHILADELPHIA RAKED BY 46 MPH STORMS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A fast-moving thunderstorm — clocked at 46 miles per hour by the Weather Bureau — raked the Philadelphia area Wednesday and left heavy damage in its wake.

The 10-minute storm, speeding through the metropolitan area, produced lightning and winds which wrecked industrial and service buildings, left homes roofless, blocked traffic with blown-down trees and ripped out power and telephone lines.

Some motorists were marooned for a time in outlying sections when roadways were flooded.

POWER CUT

Lightning struck a transformer vault at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Norristown, cutting off regular electric power for seven hours. An emergency generator supplied power for the operating and delivery rooms.

The hospital's two elevators were out of service and the rooms of its 230 patients were in darkness after the daylight hours. Many day shift employees were recalled, especially to help get meals to the patients. Firemen set up flood lights on the first floor.

JAIL STUDENT FOR FALSE ID

MAYS LANDING, N. J. (AP) — Richard Altschuler of Merion Station, Pa., was in Atlantic County jail today, serving a 10-day sentence for having false identification cards in Somers Point.

Altschuler was the first youth Municipal Magistrate Edwin H. Helfant of Somers Point has ordered jailed without setting a fine to be paid or without suspending the sentence.

Altschuler was found guilty Tuesday night of violating the city's fraudulent ID card law by Helfant. Instead of the $200 fine as most of the other 14 defendants received, the former Duke University psychology major was sentenced to a jail term.

Helfant said later Altschuler had "irritated" him with his testimony of how he had his older brother's wallet and identification cards in his possession.

Altschuler, who spent two years at Duke and will enter the Army Officer's Candidate School in two weeks, will be 21 years old Friday. He was arrested June 19.

PARKED CAR HIT

Robert Swisher, college campus, reported to borough police at 5:45 Wednesday evening that while his daughter had a car parked at the Gettysburg Shopping Center lot some other car apparently struck it, leaving a large mark along the side of the Swisher vehicle.

Convict Three Men In Trooper Slaying

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Three men have been convicted of the slaying of a Delaware state trooper at a motel near here last Oct. 17.

A jury of six women and six men brought in the verdicts Wednesday against Thomas H. Winsett, 30, of Long Beach, N.Y.; Wilbert A. Weekley, 27, also of Long Beach, and Edward J. Mayerhofer, 30, of Island Park, N.Y.

Winsett was convicted of first degree murder for the shooting of trooper Robert A. Paris, a plainclothes detective. The jury recommended mercy.

Weekley and Mayerhofer, charged with being accomplices, were found guilty of second degree murder.

Paris was shot while investigating a burglary at the motel.

Plotter Against "K" Is In Hospital

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Swedish police announced today that a 45-year-old foreigner arrested Monday has admitted planning "certain actions" against visiting Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

"But his efforts to get collaborators to execute his plan had no success in the circles to which he turned," said a statement by Police Supt. Aake Magnusson.

It added that the foreigner — who has not been officially identified by nationality or name — was admitted to a hospital today suffering from depression.

To Get Hearing For Shooting Police

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Three Milwaukee men will have a hearing next Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Charles J. Martin on charges of shooting two state troopers.

Gerald L. Larson, 17; Howard E. Langnes, 24, and Eugene Sulczewski, 21, were arrested when the troopers were shot after a routine radar speed check on the Pennsylvania Turnpike June 14.

Troopers Edward Herbst, 35, of Reamstown, and Fred W. Bendel, 22, of Nazareth, were wounded in the gunfight.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost $10 million in appropriations for military construction in Pennsylvania was included when the Senate Armed Services Committee approved $1,523,692,000 in appropriations Wednesday.

Spring crop failures are blamed for the food shortage.

PLAN SEMINAR
ADAMS COUNTY

Will Adams County have a 25 per cent increase in population during the next 10 years? Is a united county-wide effort needed to secure new industry? Why are "hundreds" of residents of nearby cities such as Baltimore buying lots in Adams County and what changes will this make in the character of the county? Are 85 per cent of the wells in the county contaminated?

Those and other questions were discussed Wednesday night by the Community Development Committee set up by the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association at a meeting in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

At the end of the meeting the committee decided to set up an eight-week seminar for "100 leaders of the county" to consider changes in the county and what, if anything, should be done about them.

TO ASK REPRESENTATIVES

County Agent Thomas E. Piper was asked to send out letters from his office to the county's Chambers of Commerce, Junior Chambers of Commerce, the various service clubs, various farm organizations, industrial organizations, utilities, township supervisors and borough councils.

Each of the organizations will be asked to name not more than two members to attend the "leadership school" to be held for eight weeks starting in September.

County Commissioner G. Fair and G. Edwin Motter, who attended Wednesday's session, agreed to send a letter to the same groups stating their belief that such a series of discussions and study would be "helpful in meeting the problems of the county's present and future."

UNAWARE OF CHANGES

Robert Lott, chairman of the committee, said: "Many changes are going on, so gradually that most of us are unaware of them. If we can get 100 people together from throughout the county representing every phase of the county, then I think we can get an overall picture and perhaps foresee some of the things that are in the county's future and make our plans accordingly."

The committee had some difficulty with the word "planning," Lott said. "Every time planning is mentioned everyone begins to

MAN FINED $25 FOR BEER CANS

Arrest of a Jacksonville, N.C., man on a charge of throwing beer cans in Marsh Creek at Natural Dam Wednesday night led to disclosure that the habit of tossing cans in creeks by drinkers has not ceased.

Marshall Edward Batchelor, 29, Jacksonville, N.C., paid a fine of $25 and costs before Justice of the Peace John Whitman on the beer can tossing charge Wednesday night near midnight.

Cumberland Twp. Officer Bernard V. Miller Sr. and Fred Green of the Natural Dam park committee told the justice that despite efforts to discourage the practice by arresting all caught tossing cans in the creek weekly cleaning operations are still needed and from nine to 10 barrels of cans are removed each week.

The effort to keep people from tossing articles in the creek is based on use of the creek for swimming. Sharp objects can cut swimmers' feet. As part of the campaign numerous receptacles for disposal of the cans, bottles, etc., have been placed through the park.

Fines for tossing cans, etc., into the creek can range up to $100.

GOP MEETS TONIGHT

Clark E. Spence, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, has called a meeting of all committeemen this evening at 8 o'clock in the court room of the courthouse. Officers and committees will be appointed and plans made for the fall campaign. All elected committeemen are urged to attend.

TWO FIRE CALLS

Gettysburg firemen were summoned twice Wednesday afternoon. At 4:24 they were summoned to a grass fire along the railroad near the Peace Light. At 5:22 they were called when a car owned by Richard Sieman caught fire on Baltimore St.

Clinton Llauguet, 7, Breaks Right Arm

Clinton Llauguet, 7, 221 S. Washington St., received treatment Wednesday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of his right arm sustained in a fall while playing.

James A. Pryor, 17, Emmitsburg, was treated Wednesday for a fracture of the left shoulder suffered while wrestling.

CIVIL RIGHTS
CHURCHWOMEN

Lutheran Church Women from the Maryland Synod, seeking solutions to human and civil rights problems, Wednesday afternoon were told that the Christian church must face up to the fact that "moral force must proceed legal force." Delegates from 175 congregations in Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia this afternoon concluded a three-day convention at Gettysburg College.

In a 90-minute panel discussion in the college dining hall attended by approximately 450 women and guests, religious and social leaders agreed that "there are problems and prejudices on both sides that can be met only through improved human understanding."

NEED FOR KNOWLEDGE

Dr. Wilmer Bell, director of adult education, Baltimore schools, was the moderator. Participants were Mrs. Harrison Bryant, wife of the pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore; the Rev. L. Crosby Deaton, pastor of Holy Comforter Lutheran Church, Baltimore, and Parren Mitchell, executive secretary of the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations.

Bell emphasized the need for knowledge, attitude and skill in handling human relations problems facing the Christian world today. He said, "Religion must be compatible with civil rights and each congregation should have a racially open ministry. There is a great need for responsible people, black and white, to get to know each other."

He listed essential human rights principles as "the right to speak out, to debate, to contest, the right to individual protection and the opportunity to be yourself, so long as it does not infringe upon the rights of others." He defined civil rights as "the right of every citizen to the rights provided under the Constitution."

CHANGE ATTITUDE

The delegates were urged to "find the problems in your neighborhood and study them one at a time in an effort to combat discrimination." Mitchell said, "There must be a mass change of

NEGRO LEADER SAYS SIT-INS INEFFECTIVE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Demonstrations have reached and passed their peak as effective instruments for the promotion of civil rights, a Negro Baptist leader said today.

"They have already come to the point of diminishing returns," Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, said in remarks prepared for delivery before the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Convention.

"They now cost the country and Negro people more in money, morals, energy, attitudes, appreciation and goodwill than they gain in economic, mental, social and cultural progress," he said.

Dr. Jackson said civil rights leaders should emphasize the solution of the problems of civil rights through law and order and the American way of government and life.

If demonstrations such as picnics, sit-ins, wade-ins and lie-ins continue, Dr. Jackson predicted:

"The participants will become more discouraged and frustrated the longer they are forced to wait for what their leaders promised them would come now. They will come to hate both their country and their leaders."

Dr. Jackson also said there is a chance that more demonstrations could lead to popularizing conservative politicians.

This could well make Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., more popular and lead to the defeat of the Johnson administration in the general election, he added.

PHILADELPHIA RAKED BY 46 MPH STORMS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A fast-moving thunderstorm — clocked at 46 miles per hour by the Weather Bureau — raked the Philadelphia area Wednesday and left heavy damage in its wake.

The 10-minute storm, speeding through the metropolitan area, produced lightning and winds which wrecked industrial and service buildings, left homes roofless, blocked traffic with blown-down trees and ripped out power and telephone lines.

Some motorists were marooned for a time in outlying sections when roadways were flooded.

POWER CUT Lightning struck a transformer vault at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Norristown, cutting off regular electric power for seven hours. An emergency generator supplied power for the operating and delivery rooms.

The hospital's two elevators were out of service and the rooms of its 230 patients were in darkness after the daylight hours. Many day shift employees were recalled, especially to help get meals to the patients. Firemen set up flood lights on the first floor.

JAIL STUDENT FOR FALSE ID

MAYS LANDING, N.J. (AP) — Richard Altschuler of Merion Station, Pa., was in Atlantic County jail today, serving a 10-day sentence for having false identification cards in Somers Point.

Altschuler was the first youth Municipal Magistrate Edwin H. Helfant of Somers Point has ordered jailed without setting a fine to be paid or without suspending the sentence.

Altschuler was found guilty Tuesday night of violating the city's fraudulent ID card law by Helfant. Instead of the $200 fine as most of the other 14 defendants received, the former Duke University psychology major was sentenced to a jail term.

Helfant said later Altschuler had "irritated" him with his testimony of how he had his older brother's wallet and identification cards in his possession.

Altschuler, who spent two years at Duke and will enter the Army Officer's Candidate School in two weeks, will be 21 years old Friday. He was arrested June 19.

PARKED CAR HIT

Robert Swisher, college campus, reported to borough police at 5:45 Wednesday evening that while his daughter had a car parked at the Gettysburg Shopping Center lot some other car apparently struck it, leaving a large mark along the side of the Swisher vehicle.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Traffic violators will receive an extra three days to pay their prescribed fines starting January 1. Mayor James H. J. Tate on Wednesday signed an ordinance extending the period for payment from five to eight days.

WIDOW WITH 5 GETS $88,000

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — A widow with five children was awarded an $88,000 settlement Wednesday in federal court in the death of her husband from tetraethyl lead poisoning.

Her husband, Joseph L. Solan, 37, of Bayonne, became ill from fumes while cleaning a Texaco Co. tank at Eagle Point Works, Westville, in August 1962, he died Sept. 15, 1962.

Mrs. Frances B. Solan, whose five children range in age from 6 to 16, sued the Pittsburgh Pipe Cleaners Co. of Folcroft, Pa., for whom her husband worked; E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., Wilmington, Del., who manufactured the tetraethyl lead sold to Texaco for making high octane gasoline, and Texaco Inc.

During a hearing Wednesday before Judge Robert Shaw, defense lawyers announced the settlement offer, which was accepted by Mrs. Solan's attorney.

To Get Hearing For Shooting Police

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Three Milwaukee men will have a hearing next Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Charles J. Martin on charges of shooting two state troopers.

Gerald L. Larson, 17; Howard E. Langnes, 24, and Eugene Szulcowski, 21, were arrested when the troopers were shot after a routine radar speed check on the Pennsylvania Turnpike June 14.

Troopers Edward Herbst, 35, of Reamstown, and Fred W. Bendl, 22, of Nazareth, were wounded in the gunfight.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost $10 million in appropriations for military construction in Pennsylvania was included when the Senate armed services committee approved $1,523,692,000 in appropriations Wednesday.

SECURITY WALL IN STOCKHOLM ANNOYS MR. K. By RONALD THOMSON STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Premier Khrushchev is getting restless and annoyed over the colossal security wall the Swedish police have put around him.

With thousands of patrolmen bristling with sabers and pistols, and hundreds of detectives in every guise from cook to charwoman, Stockholm has been like an armed camp since the Soviet leader arrived three days ago.

A Soviet source said Khrushchev is beginning to resent the massive security curtain keeping him from contact with the Swedish people.

His impatience was demonstrated during a visit to the shipbuilding center of Goteborg Wednesday. When a policeman thrust out an arm to guide him along his route, Khrushchev struck down the arm and gave him a black look.

No unauthorized person is allowed anywhere near the man from the Kremlin, and even accredited officials are sometimes taken away. Five thousand policemen and two companies of army commandos are everywhere — holding up traffic, blocking sidewalks, peering from rooftops, searching passersby, fussing through kitchens.

Expressen, Scandinavia's biggest newspaper, complained on Wednesday that the demonstrators, police said. There was some pushing and shoving. One patrolman suffered a sprained wrist.

There were no arrests.

About 45 policemen were on duty during the demonstration in this New York City suburb of 76,000.

Police officials had no immediate comment on the brutality accusations, which were outlined in handbills signed by seven organizations, including chapters of the Congress of Racial Equality and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Another paper called Khrushchev a "prison of the Swedish security police."

But the Swedish government is taking no chance of any harm coming to Khrushchev. Thousands of embittered refugees from behind the Iron Curtain live in Sweden.

At a banquet for Khrushchev in Stockholm Tuesday night, 14 detectives ate with the guests at strategically placed tables. Another 100 police surrounded the building, and a dozen more patrolled the wine cellars.

Waitresses had to go through two police checks.

Swiss chef Werner Voegeli, who prepared the menu for a luncheon at the royal palace, reported with some indignation that he and eight waitresses were subjected to medical tests to insure that they had no communicable disease.

ed: Pvt. Walter E. Toddes, Jr., 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Toddes, Gettysburg R. 3, is confined to a hospital in Italy as the result of being wounded in the back by shrapnel during action May 29

Word of the wounding of their son was received by Mr. and Mrs. Toddes in a letter received last week. An official announcement was received Wednesday by telegram which was signed.

Pvt. Toddes stated in his letter that he was not sitting up and eating much better. He stated he did not know how long he would be confined to the hospital.

The young soldier attended Gettysburg high school for three years. He entered the service October 4, 1943, as an infantryman and took his basic training at Camp Grotto, S.C. During March, 1944, he was sent overseas. Previous to his duty in Italy he had been stationed in North Africa.

Today's TalkON BEING PURSUED

We not only become hunters in this life, but we become, as well — the hunted! In other words, we are pursued — by ideas, good intentions, worries, regrets, and a multitude of memories. It is well that we have many of these pursuers. They put us on our toes, and keep us alert. But some of them wear us down and weaken us for usefulness and happiness.

To be pursued by the good things of life is a healthy state. Where would we be, for example, if we were never pursued by ideas? On the other hand, to be constantly pursued by worries and regrets or unhappy memories can result in nothing but harm.

Ideas, sooner or later, always get caught up with us. Then it is time to welcome their appearance and take them in as partners. We are moved, inspired and led forward by ideas. They are what move the world and give to us every new improvement, invention and comfort.

But to be pursued by worries is to have a group of devils upon your heels! The sooner you dodge and evade such pursuers, the happier you will be. And you can do this, if you put your mind to it and decide to have no fear of such evils, nor will you have anything to do with them at any time. Worries are the most persistent pursuers in all this world. They tag along, like pet dogs, but there the semblance ends.

We all know how unhappy we are when, after having done something wrong, we are pursued by our conscience. We can experience no peace until we have set ourselves right with that conscience. How often we read of some guilty party being thus pursued for years until finally he concludes the chase is not worth the effort and surrenders himself to authority.

The happiest of all experiences, however, is to be pursued by a never-ending urge for beauty, for the completion of one's spiritual dreams, and a continual desire to know more and more of the unlocked secrets of Nature, and of the mysteries of a human mind and heart. It is by meeting up with these that we discover the genuine purpose of life, and are guided to its areas of peace and plenty!

Details were outlined for the meeting of the state Junior Chamber of Commerce board at Gettysburg College July 17-19. The host chapters will be Upper Adams, Gettysburg and Littlestown. Littlestown Jaycees wishing to attend are asked to notify President Kenneth S. Ogg or State Director Crouse. The publicity committee for the July board meeting will meet on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at radio station WGET, Gettysburg.

Littlestown NewsJAYCEES ASK PRAYER, BIBLE BE RETURNED TO CLASSROOM

Littlestown's Junior Chamber of Commerce has written Senator Hugh Scott and Congressman George A. Goodling urging them to "exert every effort within the power and prestige of your office to assist in amending the Constitution of the United States to permit the return of prayers and religious exercises to our schools on a voluntary basis."

In their letter the Jaycees held: "Exposure to prayer and Bible reading in the schools is often the only religious contact some children receive; for this reason we feel religious exercises should be returned to our schools as an important part of our great American heritage."

The Littlestown Junior Chamber members, in the letter signed by their president, S. Kenneth Ogg, also asked the congressman and senator to "resist any efforts that may be made to remove the phrase 'one nation under God' from the pledge to the flag, as well as 'In God We Trust' from coins and governmental documents."

ANNOUNCE BOARD MEETING

At Tuesday evening's meeting of the Jaycees in the chapter room in the Littlestown Community Center, Dwight Summers, New Freedom, vice president of the Pennsylvania Junior Chamber of Commerce, was a special guest. Introduced by State Director Clyde W. Crouse, Summers spoke on state and national service of the Jaycees.

ORIOLES BEAT YANKS AGAIN; ANGELS MAKE IT 8 IN ROW

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Smith is in a rut, and the Los Angeles Angels hope it gets even deeper.

Smith, a refugee from the pitcher's mound, delivered the game-winning hit for the third consecutive night as the Angels whipped Washington 9-5 Wednesday.

The newly converted outfielder drove in five runs with a homer and a triple, lifting Los Angeles to its eighth straight victory, longest streak in the majors this season and longest in the team's 3½-year history.

STILL IN 8TH

The home run, his third, came in the seventh inning after Vic Power singled and Jim Fregosi walked and wiped out a 5-3 deficit. He added a triple in the eighth, again sending in Power and Fregosi.

The night before, the 25-year-old Smith socked a two-run homer for a 2-0 Angels' victory and Monday night he singled home the deciding run.

The Angels' spurt has left them in eighth place in the American League but has placed them only two games away from fifth. A victory over Kansas City tonight would vault them into a tie for sixth.

ABBREVIATED ACT

Smith's latest performance was an abbreviated one — he didn't enter the game until the fifth inning. Still he raised his batting average 21 points to .340 and increased his RBI total to 15 in 50 times at bat.

Despite his monotonous onslaught, Smith proved he is fallible. When he appeared as a pinch hitter in the fifth, he reached first base only because of an error.

And after lashing the triple, he was picked off third by catcher Mike Brumley as Bob Duliba struck out.

In other AL games, Baltimore defeated New York 7-4, Chicago trounced Boston 8-1, Detroit battered Kansas City 9-5 and Minnesota nipped Cleveland 3-2 after losing 12-3.

ERROR BEATS YANKEES

Smith wasn't the only big hitter for the Angels. Power hit safely four times and Jim Pieroni and Bob Perry three each. Dick Phillips had three hits for the Senators. Reliever Bob Lee picked up his fourth victory, all against Washington.

A three-base throwing error by relief pitcher Stan Williams in the eighth inning led to the Yankees' downfall. The error came on a bunt by Willie Kirkland with two men on, none out and the score tied 4-4.

Williams, trying for a force at third, flipped the ball into left field, permitting Bob Saverine and Jerry Adair to score. Kirkland raced to third from where he scored on Dick Hall's bunt.

PETERS WINS 8TH

Gary Peters hurled a five-hitter for his eighth victory against three defeats for Chicago. Ron Hansen's two-run inside-the-park homer in the four-run first triggered the triumph. Boston rookie Tony Cigliano fell into the left-field

McSherrystown Little League

'Corkie' Livesberger tossed a fine two-hitter as Sylvania Shoe defeated Fee's 9-1 Wednesday evening. The victory pulled Sylvania to within half a game of the top spot.

In the third inning the Shoe-men scored five runs on four hits, three errors and two wild pitches, the key hits being a double by Livesberger and a single by Urban Staub. Four more runs on four hits in the sixth wrapped up the outcome.

The only run for Fee's came in the fourth on a walk and triple by Dan Messenger.

Livesberger, Staub and Kim Kuhn each cracked a pair of hits for the winners.

Big Little Baseball League

The league-leading American Legion took a firmer grip on first place by edging the Eagles 8-7 Wednesday evening.

Six runs in the first inning enabled the Legion to fight off a late rally by the Eagles whose two runs in the final inning nearly pulled the game from the fire.

Each team secured seven hits. Mike Herring, who pitched well in relief for the Legion, socked the only homer of the game.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — If speedy Bob Brown should happen to bump someone a little hard Saturday night, that someone might not bounce up again very quickly.

Brown, a guard at Nebraska, weighed in at 290 pounds Wednesday as he joined his mates on the West team in their daily drill for the fourth annual All-American football game, to be played in War Memorial Stadium.

Brown, a 22-year-old from Cleveland, stands 6-5 and hopes to make the grade with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Before touring Niagara Falls with his teammates and the East team's players, Brown and the other 56 grididers here went through their fourth day of workouts.

19, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Toddes, Gettysburg R. 3, is confined to a hospital in Italy

in the back by shrapnel during action May 29

Word of the wounding of their son was received by Mr. and Mrs. Toddes in a letter received last week. An official announcement was received Wednesday by telegram which was signed,

Pvt. Toddes stated in his letter that he was not sitting up and eating much better. He stated he did not know how long he would be confined to the hospital.

The young soldier attended

Gettysburg high school for three years. He entered the service

October 4, 1943, as an infantryman and took his basic training at

Camp Groot, S.C. During

March, 1944, he was sent overseas.

Barn Burns At Center Mills:

A barn burn on the Harry Bricker farm, Center Mills, was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning about 9:30 o'clock. Damage was estimated at about $1,500.

The fire was discovered by a

Mr. Boltz who noticed flames issuing from the lower corner of the barn as he drove along the highway. The Biglerville and Bendersville fire companies were summoned and succeeded in saving the hogs.

The firemen used their boost-

plied from a nearby stream.

A small chicken house was

A corn planter and harrow in the barn were lost and a small quantity of hay was burned.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Today's TalkON BEING PURSUED

We not only become hunters in this life, but we become, as well — the hunted! In other words, we are pursued — by ideas, good intentions, worries, regrets, and a multitude of memories. It is well that we have many of these pursuers. They put us on our toes, and keep us alert. But some of them wear us down and weaken us for usefulness and happiness.

To be pursued by the good things of life is a healthy state. Where would we be, for example, if we were never pursued by ideas? On the other hand, to be constantly pursued by worries and regrets or unhappy memories can result in nothing but harm.

Ideas, sooner or later, always get caught up with us. Then it is time to welcome them as partners. We are moved, inspired and led forward by ideas. They are what move the world and give to us every new improvement, invention and comfort.

But to be pursued by worries is to have a group of devils upon your heels! The sooner you dodge and evade such pursuers, the happier you will be. And you can do this, if you put your mind to it and decide to have no fear of such evils, nor will you have anything to do with them at any time. Worries are the most persistent pursuers in all this world. They tag along, like pet dogs, but there the semi-blance ends.

We all know how unhappy we are when, after having done something wrong, we are pursued by our conscience. We can experience no peace until we have set ourselves right with that conscience. How often we read of some guilty party being thus pursued for years until finally he concludes the chase is not worth the effort and surrenders himself to authority.

The happiest of all experiences, however, is to be pursued by a never-ending urge for beauty, for the completion of one's spiritual dreams, and a continual desire to know more and more of the unlocked secrets of Nature, and of the mysteries of the human mind and heart. It is by meeting up with these that we discover the genuine purpose of life, and are guided to its areas of peace and plenty!

Just FolksHOLD THE FORT
Those who run away from care
Find new troubles they must bear.
Those who seek a pang to dodge
Soon with bitter ill's must lodge.
Whereso'er the coward hides
Grave anxiety abides.

Those who fear the foes they see
Unto greater dangers flee.
Foolish man who think afar
Peace and true contentment are Merely change the ill they know
For a heavier weight of woe.

There's no safe and sheltered place
Unto which mankind can race
Leaving fretful fear behind.
He who seeks for peace of mind
Will not find it anywhere
Trying to evade a care.

Peace, security and pride
Only with the brave abide.
Those who run from Trouble's blow
Into Failure's camp must go
And must suffer to the end
Hurts that time can never mend.

Miss Barbara Lee Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Bowers, Jefferson, Md., became the bride of Larry Eugene Wenschhof, son of Mrs. Anna Mae Wenschhof, Thurmont, Md., and grandson of Mrs. Anna Wenschhof, Barlow St., Gettysburg, at the Petersville Lutheran Church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Ralph Miller performed the double-ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white snapdragons and palms.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin with a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline, with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The gown was designed and made by the groom's mother. The silk illusion fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of sequins and teardrop pearls. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and she carried a white lace covered Bible with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Holgate Grove, Frederick, Md., wore a pink silk shantung dress with rounded neckline, short sleeves and a headpiece to match. She carried pink majestic daisies.

The bridal attendant, Miss Patsy Bowers, wore a blue dress to match that of the matron of honor, with a matching headpiece and she carried blue majestic daisies.

Samuel Harbaugh, Sebillsville, served as best man and the usher was Richard Nail, Jefferson. Benn Bishop and Bobbie Jo Bishop, Gettysburg R. 2, cousins of the groom, served as ring bearer and flower girl. The latter wore a baby blue dress styled to match the honor attendant's and carried assorted garden flowers, with a headpiece of daisies.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. The groom's mother wore an ice blue textured cotton sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Following a reception at the church the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. Upon their return they will reside in their newly furnished apartment in Thurmont. Both bride and groom are employed in the office of the Frederick Trading Co.

Computer Takes Its Place On Bench, Speeds Action On Huge Backlog Of Cases

(Editor's note: The nation's courts, steeped in the age-old precepts of English common law, are notoriously resistant to sudden change. In Pittsburgh, however, an interloper from the space age has taken a place on the Common Pleas bench and is proving an indispensable tool for eliminating that bane of so many courts — the case backlog. This AP state spotlight takes a look at the use of a computer in court administrative work and at the man who made it possible.)

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The wheels of justice grind faster in Allegheny County these days thanks to a computer and a man whose mind, associates say, works like one.

The system, revolving around an IBM 402 computer, is the brainchild of Judge Henry Ellenbogen, Vienna-born president judge of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court.

The court, with 19 judges and 204 full-time employees, is the eighth largest metropolitan court in the United States.

STARTED LAST FALL

Oppressed by a heavy backlog of civil cases, Judge Ellenbogen ordered a study of the problem soon after becoming president judge less than two years ago.

He said the need of a computer to speed administrative tasks became apparent almost immediately. The question of where to get one was no problem. The county health department already had one under lease from the International Business Machines Corp.

The computer took its place on the bench in October, 1963, with an order from Judge Ellenbogen that thereafter all attorneys would have to fill out special cards for each case. Each attorney also was assigned a number.

CUT BY THIRD

Since then the case backlog has been reduced by a third with the definite possibility it soon may be eliminated.

At the start of the program, there were 8,000 cases pending. There are now only 5,559. The time lapse between when a case is filed and when it is finally settled has been reduced from 3½ years to two.

The court, with the help of the computer, has gained full control over all civil cases. In the past, lawyers and clients were often able to determine through continuances and other tactics when a case would come to trial.

GETS FACTS FAST

Judge Ellenbogen said the computer enables the court to know in a matter of minutes the complete history of any case and in a matter of hours the complete breakdown on the number and types of cases pending or the number of cases a single lawyer or law firm is handling.

In the past, the judge said, such statistical information would have been impossible to come by.

Charles Starrett Jr., administrative assistant to Judge Ellenbogen, said the Allegheny County system is unique in that it follows a case from start to finish. Computers are in use in other cities, he said, but they are used mainly to record phrases of cases or isolated statistics such as fees.

BETTER INFORMED

Possession of complete statistical information enables the court to know which law firms or lawyers are overburdened by cases. The court can recommend that additional attorneys be hired and can be a more efficient traffic cop in directing the disposition of the more than 200 cases that are filed monthly.

The computer also keeps track of deferred cases which, in the past tended to pile up because they were filed and forgotten or at best just overlooked.

The actual operation in Allegheny County is fairly standard for an automated data processing system.

When a case is filed, attorneys fill out source cards listing the names of the plaintiff and defendant and attorneys for both sides. Types of cases are listed on the card. The appropriate title is circled.

USE IBM SORTER

The information on this card is key punched onto another in code. The two cards are filed separately. Whenever some action is taken in the case, such as the granting of a continuance a separate card is filled out and the information added to the coded record card.

An IBM 83 sorter, which can count and classify up to 1,000 cards a minute, is the workhouse of the system. If Judge Ellenbogen wants a list of 50 of the oldest unsettled equity cases before the court, the sorter will locate them in a matter of minutes. The coded cards are then inserted in the 402 computer which will print a list.

In the past it would take days, possibly weeks, to accomplish such as task.

Despite the computer's work, there has been little effect on employment, according to Starrett. Employees who used to have to dig through the files to compile these lists, now have been trained to run the computer.

Judge Ellenbogen is the son of a Vienna merchant who came to this country in 1921 after studying law and political science in Austria.

Judge Ellenbogen is a youthful looking 64, short, slim and fine featured. He speaks with a trace of an Austrian accent.

An associate says it was natural for Judge Ellenbogen to look to a computer for a solution to the court's most pressing problem because "his mind works like a computer."

"He has a very keen intellect this associate says. "He also has the habit, disturbing to some of his colleagues on the bench, of storing away something and two weeks later bringing it up and saying 'now several weeks ago you said . . .'"

Judge Ellenbogen was graduated from Duquesne University law school and went into private practice in Pittsburgh. He served three terms in Congress from 1932 until his election in 1938 to his first 10-year term on the Common Pleas bench.

CUT PENALTIES OF 3 TRAINERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The state Harness Racing Commission on Tuesday modified the suspension of three horse trainers whose horses had been drugged at Liberty Bell Park.

John Fitzpatrick's one year suspension has been reduced to 90 days, according to commission member J. B. H. Carter. Fitzpatrick has agreed not to race in the state until April 16, 1965, Carter said, though his license will be returned July 14 to permit him to drive in other states.

Lucien Fontaine, originally suspended for 90 days, had his sentence reduced to 70 days, ending June 30.

John Beddell, originally given 60 days, had his reduced to 50 days.

Mother Of JFK To Be At Dedication

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Rose Kennedy, mother of the late President John F. Kennedy will take part in a dedication ceremony Monday honoring the slain President at Independence Hall.

A plaque will be placed in front of the hall where Kennedy gave a speech on Independence Day, 1962.

Attorney General Robert Kennedy was originally scheduled to represent the Kennedy family. When he was called abroad, his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy was to have appeared.

Mrs. Kennedy will substitute for the senator, injured in a plane crash last week.

BRITAIN WILL RECALL STARS TO WIMBLEDON

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Britain will make a determined move next month to bring the great names of professional tennis back to Wimbledon's green and rain-washed turf.

As the organizers of the 78th All-England championships surveyed the ruins of Tuesday's rain-wrecked session, they embarked over their recall-the-stars scheme which will be presented July 8 to the International Lawn Tennis Federation meeting in Vienna.

If approved, it could mean the return to major tournaments of such past masters as Lew Hoad, Ken Rosewall, Tony Trabert and Alex Olmedo. All are now in the ranks of the paid players.

Said Basil Reay, secretary of the British Lawn Tennis Association:

"We will make a hard effort to get the British plan through. It will be a terrific disappointment for Britain if we can't get an open Wimbledon next year though I hasten to add it is not the end of the world."

The British plan proposes that tennis countries should be given sanction to stage experimental open tournaments during 1965-66. Alternatively, it says that whatever other countries do, Wimbledon should be allowed to go it alone with the experiment during the two-year period.

SOME OPPOSITION

The British plan needs two-thirds of the Vienna vote for approval. It seems unlikely to be forthcoming.

The Australian Association already has said it will vote against the British proposals. The United States is expected to do likewise.

Tuesday's watery Wimbledon lasted just long enough to demonstrate again the rising standard of Soviet tennis.

Dates On Nickels Convicted Thief

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Quick now, what are the dates on some of the nickels in your pocket? Don't know?

Charles Whitlow, 37, is going to prison because Ruy P. Fauver, 67, was able to tell a jury the dates on three nickels in the wallet stolen from him.

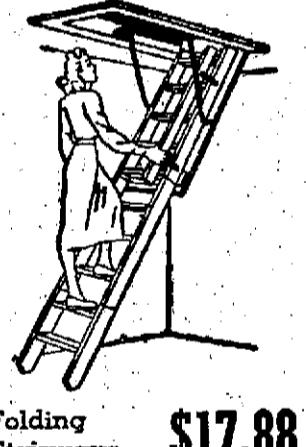

Fauver remembered because he was in the habit of saving old coins for his employer's son, a collector.

The testimony resulted in Whitlow's conviction in King County Superior Court. Judge Raymond Royal sentenced him Wednesday to a maximum of 20 years.

Weddings

Wenschhof-Bowers
Miss Barbara Lee Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowers, Jefferson, Md., became the bride of Larry Eugene Wenschhof, son of Mrs. Anna Mae Wenschhof, Thurmont, Md., and grandson of Mrs. Anna Wenschhof, Barlow St., Gettysburg, at the Petersville Lutheran Church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Ralph Miller performed the double-ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white snapdragons and palms. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin with a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline, with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The gown was designed and made by the groom's mother. The silk illusion fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of sequins and teardrop pearls. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and she carried a white lace covered Bible with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Holgate Grove, Frederick, Md., wore a pink silk shantung dress with rounded neckline, short sleeves and a headpiece to match. She carried pink majestic daisies.

The bridal attendant, Miss Patsy Bowers, wore a blue dress to match that of the matron of honor, with a matching headpiece and she carried blue majestic daisies.

Samuel Harbaugh, Sabillasville, served as best man and the usher was Richard Nail, Jefferson. Benn Bishop and Bobbie Jo Bishop, Gettysburg R. 2, cousins of the groom, served as ring bearer and flower girl. New Laws, Stiffer Penalties Await Civil Rights Workers In Jackson, Miss., In Future

EDITOR'S NOTE—Hit by violent racial outbreaks last summer, Mississippi officials have developed new techniques to meet a summer invasion of nearly 1,000 civil rights workers now under way. Here's a look at the changes, which the state hopes will avoid violence.

By DUDLEY LEHEW

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—While white citizens wait nervously for an increase in civil rights activity this summer, Mississippi officials have armed themselves with new laws and techniques aimed at averting violence.

Up until a few months ago, demonstrators usually were arrested the minute they appeared on the streets. In Jackson alone last summer more than 1,000 arrests were made.

But a new approach appeared this winter, inaugurated in Hattiesburg — let the demonstrators have police freedom of movement.

NEW LAWS ADDED

The lack of attention, police theorized, would wear thin the ranks of the participants.

In Hattiesburg, Canton, Greenwood and Clarksdale this plan was followed. Now only a few persons are still demonstrating in any form.

The state legislature, however, has added new laws, for use if needed.

And since it was called back into special session June 23 to deal with state-aided private schools, more laws could be added if trouble appears likely.

BIGGER POLICE FORCE

The biggest legal change, sought by Gov. Paul Johnson, added 200 men to the Mississippi Highway Patrol and gave the former traffic control agency police powers to be used only by proclamation in the event of racial disorders.

Another new statute, now facing a court test, prohibits picketing near entrances to government buildings. Several demonstrators were arrested under this law in Hattiesburg during a recent "Freedom Day" mass voter registration drive.

Johnson signed a law permitting cities to enter into mutual assistance pacts in times of racial duress in order for law enforcement agencies to martial forces.

STIFFER PENALTIES

Some cities have entered into such pacts with Jackson because of its big police force and coastline.

Canada has 60,000 miles of

Computer Takes Its Place On Bench, Speeds Action On Huge Backlog Of Cases

(Editor's note: The nation's courts, steeped in the age-old precepts of English common law, are notoriously resistant to sudden change. In Pittsburgh, however, an interloper from the space age has taken a place on the Common Pleas bench and is proving an indispensable tool for eliminating that bane of so many courts — the case backlog. This AP state spotlight takes a look at the use of a computer in court administrative work and at the man who made it possible.)

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The wheels of justice grind faster in Allegheny County these days thanks to a computer and a man whose mind, associates say, works like one.

The system, revolving around an IBM 402 computer, is the brainchild of Judge Henry Ellenbogen, Vienna-born president judge of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court.

The court, with 19 judges and 204 full-time employees, is the eighth largest metropolitan court in the United States.

STARTED LAST FALL

Oppressed by a heavy backlog of civil cases, Judge Ellenbogen ordered a study of the problem soon after becoming president judge less than two years ago.

He said the need of a computer to speed administrative tasks became apparent almost immediately. The question of where to get one was no problem. The county health department already had one under lease from the International Business Machines Corp.

The computer took its place on the bench in October, 1963, with an order from Judge Ellenbogen that thereafter all attorneys would have to fill out special cards for each case. Each attorney also was assigned a number.

CUT BY THIRD

Since then the case backlog has been reduced by a third with the definite possibility it soon may be eliminated.

At the start of the program, there were 8,000 cases pending. There are now only 5,559. The time lapse between when a case is filed and when it is finally settled has been reduced from 3½ years to two.

The court, with the help of the computer, has gained full control over all civil cases. In the past, lawyers and clients were often able to determine through continuances and other tactics when case would come to trial.

GETS FACTS FAST

Judge Ellenbogen said the computer enables the court to know in a matter of minutes the complete history of any case and in a matter of hours the complete breakdown on the number and types of cases pending or the number of cases a single lawyer or law firm is handling.

In the past, the judge said, such statistical information would have been impossible to come by.

Charles Starrett Jr., administrative assistant to Judge Ellenbogen, said the Allegheny County system is unique in that it follows a case from start to finish. Computers are in use in other cities, he said, but they are used mainly to record phrases of cases or isolated statistics such as fees.

BETTER INFORMED

Possession of complete statistical information enables the court to know which law firms or lawyers are overburdened by cases. The court can recommend that additional attorneys be hired and can be a more efficient traffic cop in directing the disposition of the more than 200 cases that are filed monthly.

The computer also keeps track of deferred cases which, in the past, tended to pile up because they were filed and forgotten or at best just overlooked.

The actual operation in Allegheny County is fairly standard for an automated data processing system.

When a case is filed, attorneys fill out source cards listing the names of the plaintiff and defendant and attorneys for both sides. Types of cases are listed on the card. The appropriate title is circled.

USE IBM SORTER

The information on this card is key punched onto another in code. The two cards are filed separately. Whenever some action is taken in the case, such as the granting of a continuance, a separate card is filled out and the information added to the coded record card.

An IBM 83 sorter, which can count and classify up to 1,000 cards a minute, is the workhouse of the system. If Judge Ellenbogen wants a list of 50 of the oldest unsettled equity cases before the court, the sorter will locate them in a matter of minutes. The coded cards are then inserted in the 402 computer which will print a list.

In the past it would take days, possibly weeks, to accomplish such as task.

Despite the computer's work, there has been little effect on employment, according to Starrett. Employees who used to have to dig through the files to compile these lists, now have been trained to run the computer.

Judge Ellenbogen is the son of a Vienna merchant who came to this country in 1921 after studying law and political science in Austria.

Judge Ellenbogen is a youthful looking 64, short, slim and fine featured. He speaks with a trace of an Austrian accent.

An associate says it was natural for Judge Ellenbogen to look to a computer for a solution to the court's most pressing problem because "his mind works like a computer."

"He has a very keen intellect," this associate says. "He also has the habit, disturbing to some of his colleagues on the bench, of storing away something and two weeks later bringing it up and saying 'now several weeks ago you said . . .'"

Judge Ellenbogen was graduated from Duquesne University law school and went into private practice in Pittsburgh. He served three terms in Congress from 1932 until his election in 1938 to his first 10-year term on the Common Pleas bench.

CUT PENALTIES OF 3 TRAINERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The state Harness Racing Commission on Tuesday modified the suspension of three horse trainers whose horses had been drugged at Liberty Bell Park.

John Fitzpatrick's one year suspension has been reduced to 90 days, according to commission member J. B. H. Carter. Fitzpatrick has agreed not to race in the state until April 16, 1965, Carter said, though his license will be returned July 14 to permit him to drive in other states.

Lucien Fontaine, originally suspended for 90 days, had his sentence reduced to 70 days, ending June 30.

John Beddell, originally given 60 days, had his reduced to 50 days.

Mother Of JFK To Be At Dedication

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Rose Kennedy, mother of the late President John F. Kennedy will take part in a dedication ceremony Monday honoring the slain President at Independence Hall.

A plaque will be placed in front of the hall where Kennedy gave a speech on Independence Day, 1962.

Attorney General Robert Kennedy was originally scheduled to represent the Kennedy family. When he was called abroad, his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy was to have appeared.

Mrs. Kennedy will substitute for the senator, injured in a plane crash last week.

New Laws, Stiffer Penalties Await Civil Rights Workers In Jackson, Miss., In Future

EDITOR'S NOTE—Hit by violent racial outbreaks last summer, Mississippi officials have developed new techniques to meet a summer invasion of nearly 1,000 civil rights workers now under way. Here's a look at the changes, which the state hopes will avoid violence.

By DUDLEY LEHEW

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—While white citizens wait nervously for an increase in civil rights activity this summer, Mississippi officials have armed themselves with new laws and techniques aimed at averting violence.

Up until a few months ago, demonstrators usually were arrested the minute they appeared on the streets. In Jackson alone last summer more than 1,000 arrests were made.

But a new approach appeared this winter, inaugurated in Hattiesburg — let the demonstrators have policed freedom of movement.

NEW LAWS ADDED

The lack of attention, police theorized, would wear thin in the ranks of the participants.

In Hattiesburg, Canton, Greenwood and Clarksdale this plan was followed. Now only a few persons are still demonstrating in any form.

The state legislature, however, has added new laws, for use if needed.

And since it was called back into special session June 23 to deal with state-aided private schools, more laws could be added if trouble appears likely.

BIGGER POLICE FORCE

The biggest legal change, sought by Gov. Paul Johnson, added 200 men to the Mississippi Highway Patrol and gave the former traffic control agency police powers to be used only by proclamation in the event of racial disorders.

Another new statute, now facing a court test, prohibits picketing near entrances to government buildings. Several demonstrators were arrested under this law in Hattiesburg during a recent "Freedom Day" mass voter registration drive.

Johnson signed a law permitting cities to enter into mutual assistance pacts in times of racial duress in order for law enforcement agencies to march forces.

STIFFER PENALTIES

riot control techniques and equipment.

Other new laws permit cities to restrain movements of groups, set up curfews, ban the circulation of boycott literature and increase penalties for violating city ordinances to a maximum of 90 days in jail and $300 fines.

The state penitentiary can now be used by cities and counties when local jails prove inadequate for large numbers.

MANY CROSS BURNINGS

Another side of the resistance coin is the secretive Ku Klux Klan.

Weekend cross burnings have dotted the state in the past few weeks apparently showing a highly organized segregationist group. Thus far, however, there have been no incidents or violence involving the Klan and Negroes, or civil rights workers.

Mississippi officials have been asking militant white groups to let authorities handle race relation problems, an appeal which has drawn newspaper editorial support.

DEATHS

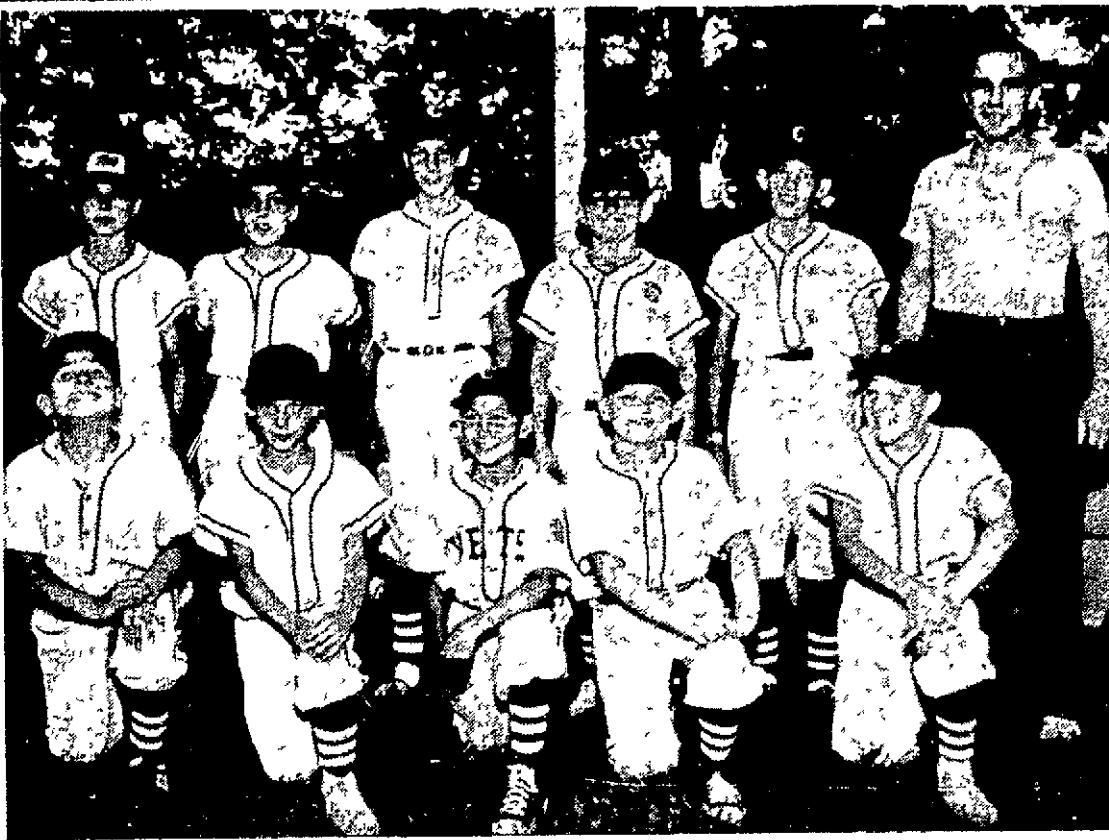

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Earle B. Mayfield, who served as U.S. senator from Texas from 1922 to 1928, died Tuesday after a sudden illness. Mayfield, a Democrat, was succeeded by the late Tom Connally.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—J. Donald Ferguson, 74, editor of the Milwaukee Journal and president of the Journal Co. for about 18 years before he retired in 1961, died Tuesday. He was a long-time member of the Pulitzer Prize Advisory Board and a former director of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

LONDON (AP)—Agnes, countess of Winchelsea and Nottingham, widow of the 15th earl of Winchelsea and 10th earl of Nottingham, died Monday. She was 53.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. S. Meigs Beyer, 83, president of the American Medical Association's 50-Year Club, died Tuesday of a heart attack while attending the association's annual convention. He had practiced medicine at Punxsutawney, Pa., for 57 years.

LODGE'S MOVE MAY PROVIDE CHOICE TO GOP

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge's return from South Viet Nam might offer Republicans a choice of candidates to oppose Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination.

Lodge announced in Saigon Tuesday he was quitting his ambassadorial post and coming home because he felt it was his "duty to do everything that I can to help Gov. Scranton to win for president."

Later, he said "there are no hidden meanings" in his decision to return to the United States and he is "not a candidate at all." He added, "I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted."

MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS

Lodge's decision to jump into presidential politics was widely heralded by the backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton as a major development in his efforts to win delegates away from Goldwater.

Scranton said he was delighted by Lodge's decision to return and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign." He said he hoped to have Lodge "go around and tell the people why they should be for me."

Supporters of Goldwater, who has more than enough publicity committed convention votes to win the nomination if his delegates stand pat, generally discounted Lodge's move.

GOLDWATER STATEMENT

Goldwater, in a statement issued Tuesday, avoided any reference to Lodge's declaration that he would campaign for Scranton.

Instead, the Arizonan said, at a meeting held recently in the home of Mrs. Thomas J. Frailey with 14 members present. Mrs. Andrew Eyster, president, presided. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Robert Simpson, president; Mrs. Thomas J. Frailey, vice president; Mrs. John White, treasurer; Mrs. Vernon Keiholtz, recording secretary; and Miss Liza Carpenter, corresponding secretary. Tea followed the meeting at which time a 10th anniversary birthday cake was served. Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner and Miss Liza Carpenter served as hostesses. The next meeting of the club in the form of a picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. A. A. Koswick on July 16 at 12 o'clock.

This was true particularly, they said, if there was a resurgence of Lodge's popularity in the national polls. These listed him as top choice of the rank and file for the nomination before he ran second to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the May 15 Oregon primary. Some polls still give Lodge high ratings.

A reception for 125 guests was held in the fellowship hall.

Cigarette Labels, Ads Must Disclose Dangers, FTC Rules

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission issued a rule Wednesday requiring that by next year all cigarette labels and advertising inform the public "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

STRONGLY OPPOSES

The tobacco industry strongly opposes any such action, and the head of the Public Health Service questioned on Tuesday whether the FTC now has sufficient authority to act.

In testimony before the committee, Surgeon General Luther L. Terry told the committee that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare believes that more legislation would be required before any federal rules could be issued.

The FTC recently completed a series of hearings started last March on its proposal to issue rules on labeling and advertising.

Dixon urged the committee to withhold action on all bills to be voted on until the FTC report can be studied.

Wedding

Mills—Leppo

Miss Doris Ann Leppo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Leppo, Westminster, and G. Melvin Mills Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Mills, Taneytown, were married Sunday, June 7, at 2 p.m. in St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Westminster. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Gilbert Bartholow.

Mrs. Virginia Fink was soloist and Oliver A. Spangler presided at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Ervin Ohler, Westminster.

Miss Sharon Ahrensbrak, Westminster, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Maus, Westminster; Barbara Edwards, Westminster; Tina Wooden, near Union Mills, and Barbara Garland, Taylorsville.

Luther Foglesong, Mayberry, was best man. Ushears were Thomas Barnes, Westminster, cousin of the bride; Howard Mills, Taneytown, bridegroom's brother; William Foglesong, Mayberry, and Jack Handley, Westminster, bride's cousin.

A reception for 125 guests was held in the fellowship hall.

Mrs. Mills will be a Senior at Westminster High School in the fall. Mills graduated from Taneytown High School in 1960 and is presently employed at Fritz's Radio and TV Sales, Taneytown.

The couple will reside at 144 Bond St., Westminster.

Congress, Court Suits May Delay FTC Ruling On Labeling Cigarettes

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress and federal court suits are the two likely obstacles to implementation of a new Federal Trade Commission rule requiring the tobacco industry to label cigarettes as health hazards.

The extent of the delay may be detailed today when representatives of the tobacco industry testify before the House Commerce Committee.

Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the FTC, told the committee he hopes the industry will comply voluntarily, but he added: "They can take this rule to the nearest court and ask for a review. I'm satisfied this will happen."

GOING TO COURT

Later, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, a Democrat from tobacco-producing North Carolina, said: "I have been in touch with leaders and representatives of growers, warehousemen and manufacturers and these groups have already agreed to take the matter to the courts immediately."

And Albert G. Clay, president of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, questioned the commission's authority to enforce the ruling. He said he thinks the manufacturers will take steps immediately to challenge it.

Dixon estimated that if the industry goes to court it will take four years of litigation before the rule can go into effect.

DEADLINE SET

The FTC, in the rule announced by Dixon Wednesday requires all cigarette manufacturers to label their products by Jan. 1 with a warning "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

The commission set a July 1, 1965, deadline for this warning label to be included in all advertising, although it said it would postpone this deadline if the industry could convince the commission that it had changed its advertising in such a way to make the requirement unnecessary.

The announcement was reflected at once in the stock market. While the New York Stock Exchange list was scoring its best advance in a month, prices of major tobacco stocks slipped 75 cents to $1.50.

TO BUY COMPANY

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Bell Telephone Co. plans to purchase Leader Telephone Co., Avoca R. 2, and provide service to Leader's 100 subscribers in Pittston, Luzerne County.

There are 227 state-operated mental hospitals in the U. S.

Fish Kill Laid To Metals Firm

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Cyanide that killed thousands of trout in Valley Creek, Chester County, last weekend came from an East Whiteland Township metal products firm, according to a sanitary engineer for the state Health Department.

Ira Thompson, assistant regional sanitary engineer in Philadelphia, said Wednesday the chemical came from the National Rolling Mills Co., in Malvern. He said the company called his office and told him a tank of cyanide overflowed Sunday, leaving a puddle on the floor.

Thompson said he was told a workman washed the puddle down a floor drain. Washburn said the diluted cyanide flowed down a grade into Valley Creek.

ENLISTS HELP OF ECONOMISTS

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson summoned home economists into the war on poverty and stayed late to shake every hand at a jammed reception which featured lady finger cakes and champagne punch.

The First Lady drew an overflow crowd Wednesday night to Ford Auditorium where 3,000 delegates heard her speech at the American Home Economics Association convention.

Five hundred more were in a nearby hall but the sound system failed.

"The horizons of women all over the world are widening from home to humanity—from private family to the family of man," said the President's wife.

And she told the home economists, whose careers are in areas related to the well-being of homes and families, that they were needed "in the front brigades" of the President's all-out war on poverty and in the Peace Corps as well.

Two Are Charged Under Election Law

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A woman voter and a Democratic committeewoman were held in $500 bail each Wednesday for the grand jury on charges of violating election codes in the Nov. 5 general election.

Joseph Parkerson, 48, is the committeewoman accused of tampering with and destroying voter certificates and tampering with an election district binder. Gladys Joy, 52, is accused of registering in two divisions of the fourth ward and voting in both, and also of perjury and making false statements to the registration commission.

Foster stressed that there would be no need to inspect nuclear stockpiles, mines or refineries.

Any declarations on the existence of fissionable material plants need not reveal information concerning the storage or deployment of nuclear weapons, he said.

OKLAHOMAN TO MAKE HIS BID AT CLEVELAND

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arnie Palmer and Jack Nicklaus used the National Amateur Championship as a stepping stone to golfdom's golden glory—and now comes Labron Harris Jr., 1962 king of the play-for-fun group, to make his bid.

The 190-pound, 6-foot-5 Oklahoman, who surrendered his amateur status just two months ago, is making a run at the established stars.

In three tournaments he has finished in the money twice to the tune of $1,306, and he hopes to boost that figure in the $100,000 Cleveland Open, which started today over Highland Park's 6,821-yard, par 71 layout.

LIKES TO PLAY

The 22-year-old Harris, a mathematics graduate of Oklahoma State University, where his dad has been golf coach since 1941, has a dollar sign in his eye in his realistic approach to the game.

"I like to play golf, and I wouldn't have much chance to play as an amateur," he said. "The next 10 years would be required for me to set myself up in some sort of business, and I'd have to give all my time to it. But I think I can make a good living at golf. If I can't I'll find out in a hurry."

Noting that Nicklaus and Palmer, both former amateur winners, were currently 1-2 in the money won list, Harris said:

"They are great golfers. You can't compare my game to theirs."

BREAK AND $800

Harris did not play in Wednesday's pro-amateur preliminary in which Don Fairfield got a big break and $800.

Fairfield was not among the 50 pros certified by the PGA but was called in off the practice course to replace injured Ed Furgol. Fairfield and three public links partners carved out a best-ball 59 despite a 77 by Don and it stood up for the big prize.

In the individual scoring race, Bill Collins, Harold Kneecoe and Bobby Nichols picked up $833 for scores of 69.

URGED NOT TO ENLIST DEWEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, has sent Gov. William W. Scranton a telegram advising the Pennsylvania governor not to enlist the political help of former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in efforts to gain the Republican presidential nomination.

"Any support you hope to gain in Ohio will undoubtedly be greatly threatened by this ill-advised move on your part," Harsha said in the telegram he made public Wednesday.

"It is with grave concern that I read your announcement enlisting the aid of . . . Dewey . . . in your campaign efforts to halt Sen. (Barry) Goldwater's nomination," said Harsha, adding:

"Mr. Dewey, a renowned hatchet man for the eastern Republicans, was primarily responsible in preventing Ohio's great senator, Robert Taft, from obtaining the presidential nomination several years ago and we in Ohio are not unmindful of this questionable contribution to Republican history."

The Taft reference was to 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower won the nomination over the late Taft with Dewey's support.

Wednesday's Stars

BATTING — Willie Smith, Los Angeles, drove in five runs with a homer and a triple as the Angels won their eighth straight game, 9-5 over Washington. His homer was the deciding blow, making three consecutive nights his hits have won games.

PITCHING — Gary Peters, Chicago, pitched a five-hitter for his eighth victory against three defeats as the White Sox trounced Boston 8-1.

YALE LARY TO GIVE ADVICE ON PUNTING

DALLAS (AP) — Yale Lary has been named adviser on punting for the kids who try for the punt, pass and kick championship.

There'll be about a million of them this year and the main precept given by Lary, kicking ace of the Detroit Lions of the National Football League, will be "Keep your eye on the ball."

"Never give a youngster a style of kicking," said Lary at a luncheon here in which 8-year-old Steve Pierce of Dallas received awards as PPK champion of his class last fall.

DOING MIGHTY WELL

"A fellow must kick the way he wants to—the way that's most natural to him. I kick differently from most anybody I know—I hold the ball crossways and kick the same way."

Lary has been doing mighty well at it. Last year he averaged 48.9 yards on 35 boots. This is second only to the fabulous average compiled by Sam Baugh of the Washington Redskins in 1940 when he did 51.4.

The punt, pass and kick contest each year is cosponsored by Ford Motor Co. and the National Football League.

John Hefflin, national PP&K coordinator, said almost a half-million kids participated in the four divisions—8, 9, 10, 11—last year and "we expect a million this time."

5th Child Of Nine Dies In Accident

DUMAS, Tex. (AP) — Five of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Solomon's nine children have died in traffic accidents.

Two sons died Wednesday night when their car struck a parked pickup truck. Three other children were killed in a wreck five years ago.

The latest accident took the lives of David Lee Solomon, 13, and John Edward Solomon, 22. The family lives in Sunray, Tex.

NEW YORK (AP) — Will Mays please stand up?

Or is he too busy cutting out paper dolls? Maybe he has suddenly gone blind. Or could it be he just can't spell M-A-Y-S.

How any major league ball player, sound of mind, devoid of prejudice, either over or under 21, could pick any center fielder in the United States—or in the world for that matter—over Mays is almost impossible to imagine.

ONE FOR FLOOD

Yet one did just that in the All-Star balloting conducted by Commissioner Ford Frick's office and announced Tuesday.

Actually, 30 players did not vote for Mays as the National League starting center fielder but 29 had a legitimate excuse. They were Willie's teammates and the rule says you cannot vote for a member of your team.

But what excuse did the other non-Mays voter have?

This guy voted for Curt Flood of the St. Louis Cardinals.

SIMPLY INCOMPARABLE

Now Flood is a capable center fielder but it's useless to even try to compare him with Mays. Or compare any other center fielder with Mays.

Willie is simply incomparable. He's a league all to himself. Whenever rival players or managers begin comparing stars, as they often do, they invariably place Mays in a category of his own. Then they begin evaluating the others.

Willie received 240 out of a possible 241 votes.

It would serve this lonesome guy right if the other 240 voted to have him appear at home plate before the All-Star game, July 7, and say out loud, a thousand times:

"Willie Mays. Willie Mays. Willie Mays."

NEW CHARGES AGAINST TRIO

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Abraham Minker, now serving a four-year federal sentence for failure to pay gambling excise taxes, has been indicted with two other men for destroying evidence seized in a raid on a numbers bank in Reading in January, 1962.

Minker and John Wittig were charged Wednesday with obstructing the Internal Revenue Service.

Joseph V. Florini was charged with obstructing the IRS, evading payment of gambling excise taxes, failure to file excise tax returns, and failure to obtain a federal gambling stamp.

Named as a coconspirator but not indicted was former Reading chief of police Charles Wade.

It was alleged that Minker, Wittig, Florini, and Wade destroyed evidence taken in a raid on a numbers bank operated by Florini.

Wade was a government witness at the trial in April at which Minker and former Mayor John Kubacki were convicted on charges of extortion. Kubacki is free on bail pending an appeal.

Volunteer Choir Director Sets Fire

BLUFF, Utah (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say a volunteer choir director has admitted setting fires that destroyed an Indian mission chapel in this remote southeastern Utah town in hopes of getting new mission facilities.

"He said maybe they'd build a new mission if the old one came down," said Sheriff Ray S. Cahoon.

Charged Wednesday with second-degree arson was Donald L. Marshall, 24, a religion instructor and choir director at St. Christopher's Episcopal Mission.

GIANT KILLERS ON LOOSE AT WIMBLEDON

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Wimbledon tennis championships — packed so far with hairsbreadth escapes — are also living up to their colorful reputation as an arena for giant killers.

With only three days play complete, three of the men's seeds already have been vanquished.

In addition, the personal ambitions of several much fancied players including the reigning champion Chuck McKinley from San Antonio, Tex., have been rudely threatened by brash and young up-and-comers on the international tennis circuit.

CLOSE SHAVE FOR CHUCK

The perils of Pauline have nothing to do with Wimbledon these days. Any ranking player can expect trouble in almost any round.

McKinley's close shave came at the height of battle with Tommas Koch, the 19-year-old Brazilian prospect who is rated in so quarters as a top player of the future.

At two sets all with Koch leading 1-0 and 40-30 against service in the fifth, the champion struggled to survive. He made it — but with not much to spare — 3-6, 6-3, 6-5, 6-4, 6-4.

The record contrasted oddly with McKinley's Wimbledon performance last year when he went through the tournament without dropping a set.

RALSTON OUT

The three seeded players already out are Dennis Ralston, No. 5, from Bakersfield, Calif., Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli, No. 7, and Australia's Martin Mulligan, No. 8.

Pietrangeli and Mulligan both succumbed tamely in straight sets — the Italian losing to Pierre Barthez of France 6-3, 7-6, 4-6, and the Australian going deep under to his compatriot Bob Hewitt 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. The giants looked pretty fragile.

Even No. 1 seed Roy Emerson of Australia dropped a set against a tooth-and-nail fighter from Yugoslavia, Nicola Pilic. The final score was 6-3, 11-9, 3-6, 6-4.

Congress, Court Suits May Delay FTC Ruling On Labeling Cigarettes

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress and federal court suits are the two likely obstacles to implementation of a new Federal Trade Commission rule requiring the tobacco industry to label cigarettes as health hazards.

The extent of the delay may be detailed today when representatives of the tobacco industry testify before the House Commerce Committee.

Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the FTC, told the committee he hopes the industry will comply voluntarily, but he added: "They can take this rule to the nearest court and ask for a review. I'm satisfied this will happen."

GOING TO COURT

Later, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, a Democrat from tobacco-producing North Carolina, said: "I have been in touch with leaders and representatives of growers, warehousemen and manufacturers and these groups have already agreed to take the matter to the courts immediately."

And Albert G. Clay, president of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, questioned the commission's authority to enforce the ruling. He said he thinks the manufacturers will take steps immediately to challenge it.

Dixon estimated that if the industry goes to court it will take four years of litigation before the rule can go into effect.

DEADLINE SET

The FTC, in the rule announced by Dixon Wednesday requires all cigarette manufacturers to label their products by Jan. 1 with a warning "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

The commission set a July 1, 1965, deadline for this warning label to be included in all advertising, although it said it would postpone this deadline if the industry could convince the commission that it had changed its advertising in such a way to make the requirement unnecessary.

The announcement was reflected at once in the stock market. While the New York Stock Exchange list was scoring its best advance in a month, prices of major tobacco stocks slipped 75 cents to $1.50.

Fish Kill Laid To Metals Firm

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Cyanide that killed thousands of trout in Valley Creek, Chester County, last weekend came from an East Whiteland Township metal products firm, according to a sanitary engineer for the state Health Department.

Ira Thompson, assistant regional sanitary engineer in Philadelphia said Wednesday the chemical came from the National Rolling Mills Co., in Malvern. He said the company called his office and told him a tank of cyanide overflowed Sunday, leaving a puddle on the floor.

Thompson said he was told a workman washed the puddle down a floor drain. Washburn said the diluted cyanide flowed down a grade into Valley Creek.

ENLISTS HELP OF ECONOMISTS

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson summoned home economists into the war on poverty and stayed late to shake every hand at a jammed reception which featured lady finger cakes and champagne punch.

The First Lady drew an overflow crowd Wednesday night to Ford Auditorium where 3,000 delegates heard her speech at the American Home Economics Association convention.

Five hundred more were in a nearby hall but the sound system failed.

"The horizons of women all over the world are widening from home to humanity—from private family to the family of man," said the President's wife.

And she told the home economists, whose careers are in areas related to the well-being of homes and families, that they were needed "in the front brigades" of the President's all-out war on poverty and in the Peace Corps as well.

Two Are Charged
Under Election Law

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A woman voter and a Democratic committeewoman were held in $500 bail each Wednesday for the grand jury on charges of violating election codes in the Nov. 5 general election.

Joseph Parkerson, 48, is the committeeman accused of tampering with and destroying voter certificates and tampering with an election district binder.

Gladys Joy, 52, is accused of registering in two divisions of the fourth ward and voting in both, and also of perjury and making false statements to the registration commission.

Foster stressed that there would be no need to inspect nuclear stockpiles, mines or refineries.

Any declarations on the existence of fissionable material plants need not reveal information concerning the storage or deployment of nuclear weapons, he said.

Emmitsburg

COMMUNITY'S BIBLE SCHOOL TO END FRIDAY

The closing program for the Emmitsburg Community Bible School will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the parish house of Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, Rev. John C. Chatton, director of the school, said today. He said the company will give the parents and friends of those enrolled an opportunity to hear and to see some of the things that the children have learned and done during the past two weeks.

Each of the eight classes of the school will give a brief presentation of some phase of its work during the 10-day period that the school was in session. There will be a display table for each class to present its handicraft and the work in the pupils' books during the school.

The Bible School had a record enrollment of 168 pupils attending its sessions. There are 32 enrolled in the two nursery classes, 23 in the beginners, 59 in the two primary classes, 39 in both junior classes, and 15 in the teen-age class. Teachers of the eight classes were as follows: Nursery I, Miss Mary Jane Zimmerman; Nursery II, Mrs. Sheila Chatton; Beginners, Mrs. Audrey Glass; Primary I, Mrs. Dolly Long and Mrs. Helen Heltbride; Junior I, Miss Shirley Hahn; Junior II, Mrs. Lyla Franklin, and the Teenage, the Rev. W. Ronald Fearer Jr. Miss Susan Martin served as the pianist of the school, and Miss Shirley Hahn was the song-leader during the assembly periods.

PLAN PICNIC LUNCH

A picnic lunch will be held on the lawn of Elias Church at 11:30 Friday morning for all pupils, staff members, parents, and friends of those enrolled in the school. Mrs. Melva Hardman and Miss Lou Bushman will be in charge of the arrangements for the picnic.

It was decided Tuesday that all of the offerings received during the daily sessions will be given to the American Bible Society, which prints and distributes Bibles and portions of the Scripture to men and women and boys and girls all over the world. The pupils and staff members of the school voted to support the project in preference to the Frederick County Migrant Ministry or The Laubach Literacy Fund, Inc., of the county.

Since the daily offerings will go entirely to the American Bible Society, the actual financing of the school will be met by the various church schools of those churches cooperating in the community school. They are Elias Lutheran Church, the United Presbyterian Church, Trinity and Tom's Creek Methodist Churches, and Incarnation United Church of Christ.

An offering will be received at the closing program on Friday evening. This offering will go toward the expenses of the school which are more than double of any previous year that the school has been in operation.

Theme of the school this year was "Jesus, the Promised Savior."

To Fill Abandoned
Mine At Scranton

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Dunmore firm has received an $803,325 federal-state contract calling for the filling of voids in an abandoned mine underneath the city of Scranton.

The state Mines Department announced Wednesday that the contract would go to the C. & S. Excavating Co. It calls for the filling of voids in the diamond, top rock and bottom rock seam of the Tripp Slope Mine.

The contract stipulates that $133,268 worth of equipment be bought from Aggregates Equipment, Inc., Leola, Lancaster County, which submitted the low bid for the purchase.

Expenses will be paid with equally matched state and federal funds under the federal-state anthracite mine drainage program, the department said.

IS LINKED TO

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A New York heart specialist, reporting on a survey of 12,000 professional persons, said today that job stress is closely linked to coronary heart disease — but smoking may not be.

The survey covered 14 occupational groups with "obvious differences" in job tensions, said Dr. Henry I. Russek, consultant in cardiovascular disease, U.S. Public Health Service hospital, Staten Island.

Dr. Russek listed those surveyed in order of decreasing stress: General medical practitioners, anesthesiologists, pathologists, dermatologists, general dental practitioners, oral surgeons, orthodontists and periodontists, general law practitioners, trial lawyers, lawyers in various specialties and patent lawyers.

In addition, he said, security analysts and security traders on the New York Stock Exchange were compared.

Persons who said they never had smoked showed significantly higher coronary heart disease rates than those who stopped smoking before their attack or before the time of the questionnaire if there was no attack, Dr. Russek reported at the annual convention of the American Medical Association.

"These findings cast doubt upon the alleged role of smoking in the genesis of coronary heart disease," he said.

Dr. Russek's report followed a statement by the AMA's House of Delegates saying that the AMA recognizes "a significant relationship between cigarette smoking and the incidence of lung cancer and certain other diseases, and that cigarette smoking is a serious health hazard." But it didn't mention heart disease specifically.

and benediction. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Say U.S. Engineers May Have Inside Track On Vast New Egyptian Job

By WEBB McKINLEY

CAIRO (AP)—American engineers are believed to have the inside track in bids for a vast but little-known project rating next to the Aswan Dam in importance to Egypt.

While world attention focuses on the Soviet Union's role in helping build the dam, three American firms are hoping to reclaim a 312,000-acre tract in the Nile River delta south of Port Said that would feed another half million Egyptians. The area now is uninhabited swamp and desert.

The project would tie in with the Aswan Dam and enable Egypt to use the regulated flow of the waters more effectively.

MIGHT TAKE EDGE OFF

The United States, if the American bid wins, might take some edge off the Soviet propaganda victory in building the dam after the United States withdrew support for the project in 1956.

Reliable sources said President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic government has signed a nonbinding letter of intent to hire the three firms to undertake the reclamation scheme, known as the Valley of Port Said and Sahlia Desert project.

The firms are the FMC Corp., with executive offices at San Jose, Calif.; the Utah Construction Co. of Salt Lake City; and the Morrison Knudsen Co. of Boise, Idaho. FMC, which has just completed a 25,000-acre project northwest of Cairo, is handling negotiations.

HAS TOP PRIORITY

Government sources said Nasser has told U.S. diplomats the Sahlia Project has No. 1 priority in his country and first call on Egypt's foreign currency earnings.

Vying with the Americans is a European combine of Italian, British, French, West German and Dutch firms working jointly with the Suez Canal Authority. The Egyptian builder of the dam, Osman Osman, also has bid for the job.

The American bid is reported to be in the neighborhood of $223 million—believed about two million below Osman's figures.

OVER SIX YEARS

Two-thirds of the money in the American venture would come from local currency, derived from American aid shipments of wheat to Egypt, which amount to about $150 million a year. The remainder would depend on private or international financing from such bodies as the International Development Agency, an affiliate of the World Bank.

The Europeans have sweetened their bid with an offer of 35-year financing.

Engineers figure the job would take six or seven years. It would mean building roads, canals, villages and mosques as well as pumping and irrigating stations. Eventually about 31,000 families or nearly one per cent of Egypt's burgeoning population would be settled on the re-claimed area.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bruce Dudley, 72, former president of the American Association Baseball League and president of the Louisville Colonels from 1940 to 1949, died Wednesday.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—John Goodyear, 51, who spent 27 years in the diplomatic service in posts all over the world, died Tuesday after a brief illness.

Fireworks-Laden Barge Explodes In A Fury Of Rockets; Two Are Killed

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP)—A fireworks-laden barge exploded in a fury of rockets, flares and bombs on the Hudson River Tuesday night, killing two men. Thousands of spectators cheered. They thought it was part of the show.

Half a million persons lined the riverbanks in Manhattan and New Jersey for the fireworks spectacle, produced since 1957 by Macy's department store.

Two other barges, whose crews apparently were unaware of the fatal accident, continued firing rockets into the sky.

IGNITED SHELLS

At the finale, 20 minutes later, spectators some distance from the blast, off 96th Street, still were cheering. A hush fell on thousands of others as news of the blast spread.

John Serpico, president of International Fireworks Co. of North Bergen, N.J., said "a low determined.

burst that apparently ignited shells on the deck of the barge" caused the explosion.

Killed were Anthony Amato, 60, of Secaucus, N.J., and Anthony De Francisco, 40, of Sparkill, N.Y.

Four other men on the barge were rescued by the tug which was towing it. One was treated at a hospital for burns and released.

BLAST IN ARMORY

Less than an hour earlier, an explosion destroyed an ammunition room in the sub-basement of a Manhattan armory where about 385 National Guard reservists were attending a weekly drill.

Nineteen were injured. All but four were released after hospital treatment. Two of the four were in serious condition.

Cause of the blast, which knocked out heavy concrete walls and blew off the steel doors to the room, has not been determined.

EXPERT FAILURE

But these attempts to produce a constitutional amendment permitting the reading of the prayer and the Bible—have failed so far and will probably fail totally.

Again this year, one week before it finished up Monday, the court gave perhaps its most far-reaching opinion in years, one which will surely shake the foundations of the old political machines as they haven't been in generations.

This ruling—it may affect practically all 50 states—instructed them to overhaul their legislatures by reapportioning their election districts more equally by population to carry out this philosophy: "one voter, one vote."

MUST REAPPORTION

The court said the seats in both houses of state legislatures must be worked out by the away from the present, ancient districting in which a relatively small number of people in one district can elect one legislator while four times as many are squeezed into a single district elsewhere can elect only one.

In disregard of the serious protests of the Laotian and Chinese people, the United States is continuing its wanton bombing in Laos and stepping up its preparations for new military ventures in southern Viet Nam.

Following Taylor's appointment, editorial writers in Tokyo were taking a close look at Indochina—which Japan ruled in World War II.

FORESEES U. S. ACTION

The paper Asahi said the United States seemed to be adopting a policy of force in order to improve its position for a presumed political situation after U.S. elections. The Daily Yomiuri said there is the possibility that Chinese "volunteers," in the style of the Korean War, will go to North Viet Nam if the United States bombs its capital, Hanoi.

The Japan Times spoke hopefully of a policy that will not result in expansion of the area of conflict.

Both Communist and non-Communist papers in Hong Kong predicted the United States will step up its military activities in Southeast Asia.

NOTES GRAVE CRISIS

A Red Chinese broadcast from Peking said the Communist vice premier, Chen Yi, spoke of U.S. policy.

OKLAHOMAN TO MAKE HIS BID AT CLEVELAND

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Arnie Palmer and Jack Nicklaus used the National Amateur Championship as a stepping stone to golfdom's golden glory—and now comes Labron Harris Jr., 1962 king of the play-for-fun group, to make his bid.

The 190-pound, 6-foot-3 Oklahoman, who surrendered his amateur status just two months ago, is making a run at the established stars.

In three tournaments he has finished in the money twice to the tune of $1,306, and he hopes to boost that figure in the $100,000 Cleveland Open, which started today over Highland Park's 6,821-yard, par 71 layout.

LIKES TO PLAY

The 22-year-old Harris, a mathematics graduate of Oklahoma State University, where his dad has been golf coach since 1941, has a dollar sign in his eye in his realistic approach to the game.

"I like to play golf, and I wouldn't have much chance to play as an amateur," he said. "The next 10 years would be required for me to set myself up in some sort of business, and I'd have to give all my time to it. But I think I can make a good living at golf. If I can't I'll find out in a hurry."

Noting that Nicklaus and Palmer, both former amateur winners, were currently 1-2 in the money won list, Harris said: "They are great golfers. You can't compare my game to theirs."

BREAK AND $800

Harris did not play in Wednesday's pro-amateur preliminary in which Don Fairfield got a big break and $800.

Fairfield was not among the 50 pros certified by the PGA but was called in off the practice course to replace injured Ed Furgol. Fairfield and three public links partners carved out a best-ball 59 despite a 77 by Don and it stood up for the big prize.

In the individual scoring race, Bill Collins, Harold Kneeece and Bobby Nichols picked up $833 for scores of 69.

MELO PARK, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Lyman Leroy Standley, 79, nationally known authority on audio-visual teaching, died Tuesday.

URGED NOT TO ENLIST DEWEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, has sent Gov. William W. Scranton a telegram advising the Pennsylvania governor not to enlist the political help of former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in efforts to gain the Republican presidential nomination.

"Any support you hope to gain in Ohio will undoubtedly be greatly threatened by this ill-advised move on your part," Harsha said in the telegram he made public Wednesday.

"It is with grave concern that I read your announcement enlisting the aid of . . . Dewey . . . in your campaign efforts to halt Sen. (Barry) Goldwater's nomination," said Harsha, adding:

"Mr. Dewey, a renowned hatchet man for the eastern Republicans, was primarily responsible in preventing Ohio's great senator, Robert Taft, from obtaining the presidential nomination several years ago and we in Ohio are not unmindful of this questionable contribution to Republican history."

The Taft reference was to 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower won the nomination over the late Taft with Dewey's support.

Wednesday's Stars

BATTING — Willie Smith, Los Angeles, drove in five runs with a homer and a triple as the Angels won their eighth straight game, 9-5 over Washington. His homer was the deciding blow, making three consecutive nights his hits won games.

PITCHING — Gary Peters, Chicago, pitched a five-hitter for his eighth victory against three defeats as the White Sox trounced Boston 8-1.

YALE LARY TO GIVE ADVICE ON PUNTING

DALLAS (AP) — Yale Lary has been named adviser on punting for the kids who try for the punt, pass and kick championship.

There'll be about a million of them this year and the main precept given by Lary, kicking ace of the Detroit Lions of the National Football League, will be "Keep your eye on the ball."

"Never give a youngster a style of kicking," said Lary at a luncheon here in which 8-year-old Steve Pierce of Dallas received awards as PPK champion of his class last fall.

DOING MIGHTY WELL

"A fellow must kick the way he wants to—the way that's most natural to him. I kick differently from most anybody I know—I hold the ball crossways and kick the same way."

Lary has been doing mighty well at it. Last year he averaged 48.9 yards on 35 boots. This is second only to the fabulous average compiled by Sammy Baugh of the Washington Redskins in 1940 when he did 51.4.

The punt, pass and kick contest each year is cosponsored by Ford Motor Co. and the National Football League.

John Heflin, national PP&K coordinator, said almost a half-million kids participated in the four divisions—8, 9, 10, 11—last year and "we expect a million this time."

5th Child Of Nine Dies In Accident

DUMAS, Tex. (AP) — Five of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Solomon's nine children have died in traffic accidents.

Two sons died Wednesday night when their car struck a parked pickup truck. Three other children were killed in a wreck five years ago.

The latest accident took the lives of David Lee Solomon, 12, and John Edward Solomon, 22.

The family lives in Sunray, Tex.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philco Corporation has announced the sale of two buildings here for $1.6 million.

GIANT KILLERS ON LOOSE AT WIMBLEDON

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Wimbledon tennis championships — packed so far with hairsbreadth escapes — are also living up to their colorful reputation as an arena for giant killers.

With only three days play complete, three of the men's seeds already have been vanquished.

In addition, the personal ambitions of several much fancied players including the reigning champion Chuck McKinley from San Antonio, Tex., have been rudely threatened by brash and young up-and-comers on the international tennis circuit.

CLOSE SHAVE FOR CHUCK

The perils of Pauline have nothing on Wimbledon these days. Any ranking player can expect trouble in almost any round.

McKinley's close shave came at the height of battle with Tommas Koch, the 19-year-old Brazilian prospect who is rated in so quarters as a top player of the future.

At two sets all with Koch leading 1-0 and 40-30 against service in the fifth, the champion struggled to survive. He made it — but with not much to spare — 3-6, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4.

The record contrasted oddly with McKinley's Wimbledon performance last year when he went through the tournament without dropping a set.

RALSTON OUT

The three seeded players already out are Dennis Ralston, No. 5, from Bakersfield, Calif., Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli, No. 7, and Australia's Martin Mulligan, No. 8.

Pietrangeli and Mulligan both succumbed tamely in straight sets — the Italian losing to Pierre Barthes of France 6-3, 7-6, 6-4, and the Australian going deep under to his compatriot Bob Hewitt 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. The giants looked pretty fragile.

Even No. 1 seed Roy Emerson of Australia dropped a set against a tooth-and-nail fighter from Yugoslavia, Nicola Pilic. The final score was 6-3, 11-9, 3-6, 6-4.

Volunteer Choir Director Sets Fire

BLUFF, Utah (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say a volunteer choir director has admitted setting fires that destroyed an Indian mission chapel in this remote southeastern Utah town in hopes of getting new mission facilities.

"He said maybe they'd build a new mission if the old one came down," said Sheriff Ray S. Cahoon.

Charged Wednesday with second-degree arson was Donald L. Marshall, 24, a religion instructor and choir director at St. Christopher's Episcopal Mission.

SEATTLE (AP) — Eddie Cott

ton said today he isn't crossing his fingers. He might break one.

Freshly turned 38 and looking much too healthy for his own good, of Break'n Aches Eddie is winding up training this week at his home base for a July 2 bout in New York with Wayne Thornton.

The winner expects to earn a crack at Willie Pastrano's light-heavyweight title in September — and that's the break Eddie has been hoping for.

If the Cottons keep a family album it's probably full of X-ray pictures. Lanky Ed has been knocked out only once in a ring career dating back to 1947, but he's been on the medical shelf so often the doctors think his name is Eddie Fracture.

The tally—not counting mere sprains—is four broken hands, two to a side; one fractured pelvis; one bout with pneumonia which he won by a narrow decision.

Say U.S. Engineers May Have Inside Track On Vast New Egyptian Job

By WEBB MCKINLEY

CAIRO (AP)—American engineers are believed to have the inside track in bids for a vast but little-known project rating next to the Aswan Dam in importance to Egypt.

While world attention focuses on the Soviet Union's role in helping build the dam, three American firms are hoping to reclaim a 312,000-acre tract in the Nile River delta south of Port Said that would add another half million Egyptians. The area now is uninhabited swamp and desert.

The project would tie in with the Aswan Dam and enable Egypt to use the regulated flow of the waters more effectively.

MIGHT TAKE EDGE OFF

The United States, if the American bid wins, might take some edge off the Soviet propaganda victory in building the dam after the United States withdrew support for the project in 1956.

Reliable sources said President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic government has signed a nonbinding letter of intent to hire the three firms to undertake the reclamation scheme, known as the Valley of Port Said and Salfia Desert project.

The firms are the FMC Corp., with executive offices at San Jose, Calif.; the Utah Construction Co. of Salt Lake City; and the Morrison Knudsen Co. of Boise, Idaho. FMC, which has just completed a 25,000-acre project northwest of Cairo, is handling negotiations.

HAS TOP PRIORITY

Government sources said Nasser has told U.S. diplomats the Salfia Project has No. 1 priority in his country and first call on Egypt's foreign currency earnings.

Ying with the Americans is a European combine of Italian, British, French, West German and Dutch firms working jointly with the Suez Canal Authority. The Egyptian builder of the dam, Osman Osman, also has bid for the job.

The American bid is reported to be in the neighborhood of $223 million—believed about two million below Osman's figures.

OVER SIX YEARS

Two-thirds of the money in the American venture would come from local currency, derived from American aid shipments of wheat to Egypt, which amount to about $150 million a year. The remainder would depend on private or international financing from such bodies as the International Development Agency, an affiliate of the World Bank.

The Europeans have sweetened their bid with an offer of 25-year financing.

Engineers figure the job would take six or seven years. It would mean building roads, canals, villages and mosques as well as pumping and irrigating stations. Eventually about 31,000 families or nearly one per cent of Egypt's burgeoning population would be settled on the re-claimed area.

See-Talk Phone Initiated Today

NEW YORK (AP)—See as you talk telephone service linking New York, Washington and Chicago went into effect today.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson helped the Bell Telephone Co. inaugurate the system Wednesday. She talked from Washington with Dr. Elizabeth A. Wood, a scientist in Bell laboratories here.

Two teen-aged deaf mutes also conversed on the system, reading each other's lips on the 4-inch by 5-inch television screens.

The rates are $16 for the first three minutes between New York and Washington, $21 between Chicago and Washington and $27 between Chicago and New York.

The Picturephone Centers are in Grand Central Terminal, a Chicago office building and the National Geographic Society building in Washington.

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP)—A fireworks-laden barge exploded in fury of rockets, flares and bombs on the Hudson River Tuesday night, killing two men. Thousands of spectators cheered. They thought it was part of the show.

Half a million persons lined the riverbanks in Manhattan and New Jersey for the fireworks spectacle, produced since 1957 by Macy's department store.

Two other barges, whose crews apparently were unaware of the fatal accident, continued firing rockets into the sky.

IGNITED SHELLS

At the finale, 20 minutes later, spectators some distance from the blast, off 96th Street, still were cheering. A hush fell on thousands of others as news of the blast spread.

John Serpico, president of International Fireworks Co. of doors to the room, has not been determined.

Khanh Assures Vietnamese Of Free World Aid In Crisis

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Khanh told his people Wednesday: "The free world countries are right at our side and if necessary will tackle the problem of communism right at its roots."

His statement coincided with a declaration from Peking that "the situation in Indochina has become increasingly grave in the past few days," he said. "In disregard of the serious protests of the Laotian and Chinese people, the United States is continuing its wanton bombing in Laos and stepping up its preparations for new military ventures in southern Viet Nam."

Following Taylor's appointment, editorial writers in Tokyo were taking a close look at Indochina—which Japan ruled in World War II.

FORESEES U. S. ACTION

The paper Asahi said the United States seemed to be adopting a policy of force in order to improve its position for a presumed political situation after U.S. elections. The Daily Yomiuri said there is the possibility that Chinese "volunteers," in the style of the Korean War, will go to North Viet Nam if the United States bombs its capital, Hanoi.

The Japan Times spoke hopefully of a policy that will not result in expansion of the area of conflict.

Both Communist and non-Communist papers in Hong Kong predicted the United States will step up its military activities in Southeast Asia.

NOTES GRAVE CRISIS

A Red Chinese broadcast from Peking said the Communist vice premier, Chen Yi, spoke of U.S.

CALENDAR LOADED

The court refused to review, and thus let stand, a lower U.S. court decision of last Dec. 17 which reversed on technical grounds a $120,000 fine against the party for failure to submit details of its membership and finances.

The court was loaded down with racial and civil rights problems this term.

The court overturned a series of trespass convictions against sit-in demonstrators; threw out the conviction of 65 Negro students arrested on breach of the peace charges in a 1960 racial demonstration; ruled against a Southern courtroom custom of addressing Negroes by their first names instead of as "Miss" or "Mr." or "Mrs."; let stand a lower court ruling that hospitals accepting federal funds for construction must desegregate their staffs and facilities; upheld a lower court decision declaring unconstitutional a Louisiana law regulating segregation of the races in public parks and recreation centers; and banned any requirement it started seven seasons back had a slow start. In fact, it was on the verge of being canceled when it began, slowly, to build its audience.

Through the years, Alex Stone's family has had considerable change. A daughter, played by Shelley Fabares, grew her role and departed—ostensibly to college, but actually to a career on her own. Patty Petersen, aged 8, was introduced originally as visitor, but now has been integrated into the cast as the Stone's own.

"People have accepted it and I never get mail asking about the foster child thing."

Betz gives all the credit to Miss Reed and her husband, Tony Owens, producer of the show.

"It's my way of keeping my sanity," Betz explained with a smile. "After such a long time in one part, an actor is in great danger of playing so casually—giving such a naturalistic performance—that it is almost lethargic."

Betz (whose hobbies are tennis and baseball watching) believes that predicting the success of a television series is rather like handicapping a horse race. The best horse, under certain conditions, usually wins.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, undeterred by criticism that it is pushing too far too fast and usurping power, has finished another jammed year deciding cases from civil rights and communism to re-apportionment.

It continued to assert its concern for civil liberties—protection of the individual from the power of the state. It handled labor problems and many cases which may seem minor to the general public but took time, work and thought.

Near the end of last year's term the court blew up a storm by banning any required reading of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer in public schools. Attempts were made in Congress this year to undo that decision.

EXPERT FAILURE

But these attempts—to produce a constitutional amendment permitting the reading of the prayer and the Bible—have failed so far and will probably fail totally.

Again this year, one week before it finished up Monday, the court gave perhaps its most far-reaching opinion in years, one which will surely shake the foundations of the old political machines as they haven't been in generations.

This ruling—it may affect practically all 50 states—instructed them to overhaul their legislatures by reapportioning their election districts more equally by population to carry out this philosophy: "one voter, one vote."

MUST REAPPORTION

SEEK TO HALT RISING COSTS IN HOSPITALS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The governor's hospital study commission plans to take a series of steps which it hopes will "halt the spiraling cost" of hospitalization in Pennsylvania.

Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare and chairman of the governor's commission, said Tuesday the Commonwealth was concerned about rising cost of hospital care and resulting rising costs in hospitalization insurance, such as Blue Cross.

Adams said he was afraid hospital costs may rise so high as to put an end to the "voluntary prepayment plans." He added:

SEE HIGHER PREMIUMS

"This threat to the voluntary prepayment system for meeting hospitalization expenses can not be permitted to exist, and the ... commission intends to do everything it can to prevent runaway hospital costs which will certainly result in higher premiums."

The commission intends to take these steps, Adams said:

—Ask the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Society to alert its members to the need for the "most efficient utilization of hospital beds."

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

—Ask hospital boards of trustees to re-evaluate the functions of "utilization committees and hospital construction controls" in order to provide better planned facilities for the ill.

—Ask the boards to consider such things as home care units, courtesy discounts and joint purchasing arrangements to be certain hospital costs are appropriate and no one is hospitalized unless medically necessary.

—Introduce legislation providing for regulation of future construction of nursing homes "to assure both qualitative and quantitative controls for maximum services."

Body Of Drowned Boy Recovered

HARRISBURG (AP) — River rescue units Wednesday recovered the body of Peter Bartlett, 16, one of three Marysville boys stranded on an island when their boat capsized in the Susquehanna River.

The boys tried to swim to the east bank of the river Tuesday night, but Bartlett drowned. One boy had to be pulled from the water by a fisherman who swam out 50 yards to make the rescue.

Today's Pattern
WILL RESUME EXAMINATIONS OF PA. DRIVERS

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton administration plans to reinstate the physical re-examination program for all licensed drivers, but not before late 1966.

Harry H. Brainerd, traffic safety commissioner, said today that resumption of the re-examination program, suspended in February 1963 just after the administration took office, is impractical until operators' licenses and records are handled by computers.

"As much as we approve of the re-examination of all drivers, we first have to put their records on the computers and that won't be finished until late 1966 or early 1967," Brainerd said, adding:

STUDY MEDICAL STANDARDS

"Then we intend to require all operators applying for renewals to complete a medical report."

He disclosed that a subcommittee of the governor's traffic safety coordinating committee is in the process of determining whether the present medical standards should be retained or altered and what should be the elapsed time between re-examinations.

The physical re-examination program instituted by former Gov. David L. Lawrence in November 1960 envisioned re-checking the state's 5.5 million drivers every 10 years.

30,131 REJECTED

In the 16 months the program was in effect, 806,918 drivers were selected by lot for the examinations. Of these, 30,131 were rejected for various physical reasons and more denied driving privileges unless their conditions could be corrected.

Brainerd said originally the bureau was calling in 12,000 to 15,000 drivers a week, but that had dwindled to some 700 weekly as more than 45,000 reports backlog by early 1963.

"We just don't have the staff to handle it manually," said Brainerd. "The best thing we can do is hold off until the records are set up for the computers."

CHECK ON LEARNERS

However, he added, all applicants for learner's permits still are being required to undergo medical and eye examinations.

A person wishing to secure a license must have his private physician complete a medical report, then take an eye examination at a state police barracks before obtaining a learner's permit application.

Because most applicants for new licenses are young, the rejection rate is relatively low. Of the 859,521 applications made between June 1960, the learner's program began before the examination of licensed drivers, and April 1964, only 810 have been rejected for medical reasons.

Brainerd said that although the mass re-examination program was suspended, many drivers still are being called in for rechecks.

WOULD AMEND TRANSIT BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Pennsylvania congressman says that he will attempt to amend the mass transit bill under House debate today in order to protect some of his state's heavy industry.

Rep. John P. Saylor, R-Pa., said Wednesday that he would seek an amendment which would prohibit the purchase of foreign-built equipment with funds provided under the new bill.

Saylor contended that American companies have been underbid for generators and turbines to be used in federal projects by foreign firms whose wage scales are far below those in the U.S.

The administration's $500 million mass transit program would promote a demand for Pennsylvania products such as railroad cars, buses, electronic control systems, highway materials, steel rails, and other items under a three-year program of grants.

Chapel Damaged By Blazing Bomb

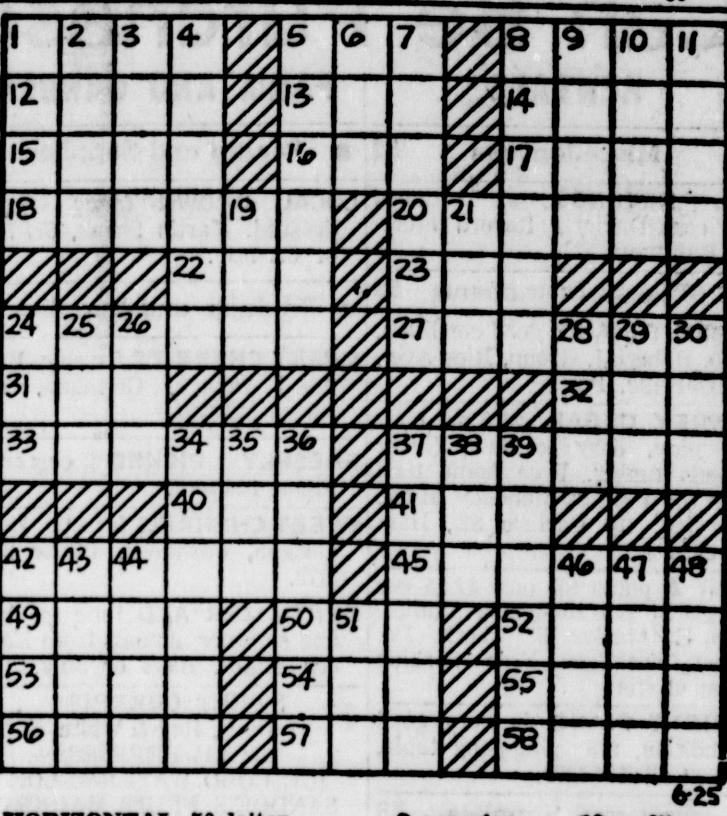

RULEVILLE, Miss. (AP) — A chapel used for civil rights meetings was slightly damaged late Wednesday after a fire bomb was hurled at it.

The Council of Federated Organizations said the chapel was slightly damaged.

Volunteer white firemen put out the blaze some 10 minutes after it began.

The fire was the fourth church burning in the last 10 days in the state.

SEEK TO HALT RISING COSTS IN HOSPITALS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The governor's hospital study commission plans to take a series of steps which it hopes will "halt the spiraling cost" of hospitalization in Pennsylvania.

Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare and chairman of the governor's commission, said Tuesday the Commonwealth was concerned about rising cost of hospital care and resulting rising costs in hospitalization insurance, such as Blue Cross.

Adams said he was afraid hospital costs may rise so high as to put an end to the "voluntary prepayment plans." He added:

SEE HIGHER PREMIUMS

"This threat to the voluntary prepayment system for meeting hospitalization expenses can not be permitted to exist, and the commission intends to do everything it can to prevent runaway hospital costs which will certainly result in higher premiums."

The commission intends to take these steps, Adams said:

"Ask the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Society to alert its members to the need for the 'most efficient utilization of hospital beds.'

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

"Ask hospital boards of trustees to re-evaluate the functions of 'utilization committees and hospital construction controls' in order to provide better planned facilities for the ill."

"Ask the boards to consider such things as home care units, courtesy discounts and joint purchasing arrangements to be certain hospital costs are appropriate and no one is hospitalized unless medically necessary."

"Introduce legislation providing for regulation of future construction of nursing homes 'to assure both qualitative and quantitative controls for maximum services."

Body Of Drowned Boy Recovered

HARRISBURG (AP) — River rescue units Wednesday recovered the body of Peter Bartlett, 16, one of three Marysville boys stranded on an island when their boat capsized in the Susquehanna River.

The boys tried to swim to the east bank of the river Tuesday night, but Bartlett drowned. One boy had to be pulled from the water by a fisherman who swam out 50 yards to make the rescue.

WILL RESUME EXAMINATIONS OF PA. DRIVERS

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton administration plans to reinstate the physical re-examination program for all licensed drivers, but not before late 1966.

Harry H. Brainerd, traffic safety commissioner, said today that resumption of the re-examination program, suspended in February 1963 just after the administration took office, is impractical until operators' licenses and records are handled by computers.

"As much as we approve of the re-examination of all drivers, we first have to put their records on the computers and that won't be finished until late 1966 or early 1967," Brainerd said, adding:

STUDY MEDICAL STANDARDS

"Then we intend to require all operators applying for renewals to complete a medical report."

He disclosed that a subcommittee of the governor's traffic safety coordinating committee is in the process of determining whether the present medical standards should be retained or altered and what should be the elapsed time between re-examinations.

The physical re-examination program instituted by former Gov. David L. Lawrence in November 1960 envisioned re-checking the state's 5.5 million drivers every 10 years.

30,131 REJECTED

In the 16 months the program was in effect, 806,918 drivers were selected by lot for the examinations. Of these, 30,131 were rejected for various physical reasons and more denied driving privileges unless their conditions could be corrected.

Brainerd said originally the bureau was calling in 12,000 to 15,000 drivers a week, but that had dwindled to some 700 weekly as more than 45,000 reports backlogged by early 1963.

"We just don't have the staff to handle it manually," said Brainerd. "The best thing we can do is hold off until the records are set up for the computers."

CHECK ON LEARNERS

However, he added, all applicants for learner's permits still are being required to undergo medical and eye examinations.

A person wishing to secure a license must have his private physician complete a medical report, then take an eye examination at a state police barracks before obtaining a learner's permit application.

Because most applicants for new licenses are young, the rejection rate is relatively low. Of the 859,521 applications made between June 1960, the learner's program began before the examination of licensed drivers, and April 1964, only 810 have been rejected for medical reasons.

Brainerd said that although the mass re-examination program was suspended, many drivers still are being called in for rechecks.

WOULD AMEND TRANSIT BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Pennsylvania congressman says that he will attempt to amend the mass transit bill under House debate today in order to protect some of his state's heavy industry.

Rep. John P. Saylor, R-Pa., said Wednesday that he would seek an amendment which would prohibit the purchase of foreign-built equipment with funds provided under the new bill.

Saylor contended that American companies have been undercut for generators and turbines to be used in federal projects by foreign firms whose wage scales are far below those in the U.S.

The administration's $500 million mass transit program would promote a demand for Pennsylvania products such as railroad cars, buses, electronic control systems, highway materials, steel rails, and other items under a three-year program of grants.

Chapel Damaged By Blazing Bomb

RULEVILLE, Miss. (AP) — A chapel used for civil rights meetings was slightly damaged late Wednesday after a fire bomb was hurled at it.

The Council of Federated Organizations said the chapel was slightly damaged.

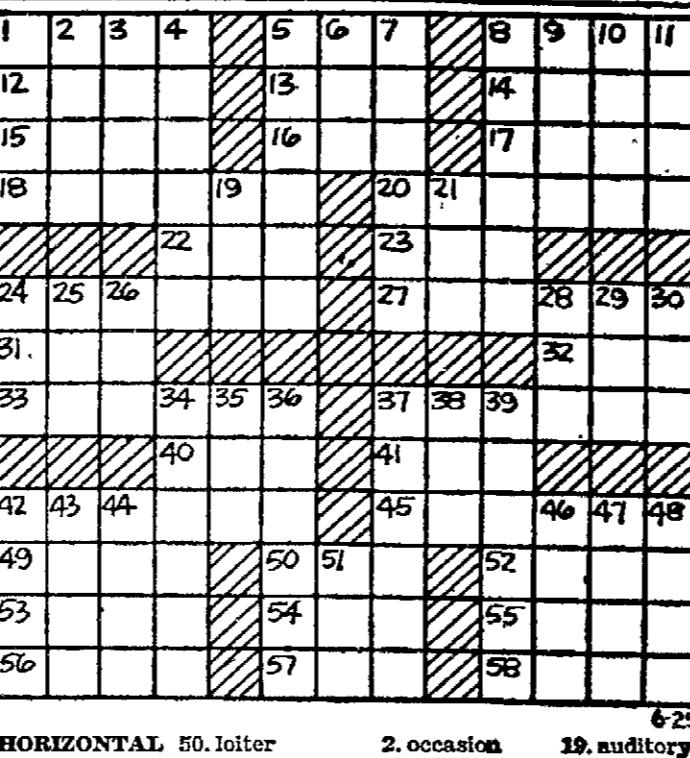

Volunteer white firemen put out the blaze some 10 minutes after it began.

The fire was the fourth church burning in the last 10 days in the state.

BOB KENNEDY NOT TO SEEK SENATE SEAT

By JOSEPH E. MOHABAT
WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy began a sentimental mission to Germany Wednesday on the heels of his announcement that he will not seek the Democratic senatorial nomination in New York.

Kennedy's brief statement Tuesday on the Senate race shed no further light on his future. But it left open the door to any invitation from President Johnson to join him as vice presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket.

Thus ended long weeks of speculation whether Kennedy would accede to the urgings of New York friends and Democratic leaders, move to the Empire State and seek the nomination to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

TWO KEY FACTORS

"I deeply appreciate the loyalty and friendship of those who have urged me to run and who believe I could perform a service for the people of New York," Kennedy said in a statement handed out at the Justice Department.

"However, in fairness to them and to end speculation, I wish to state that I will not be a candidate for United States senator from New York," he said. There was little elaboration on Kennedy's statement from the Justice Department. But two key factors emerged as most influential.

LONG HOT SUMMER

One is the civil rights picture. Final passage of the rights bill, with all of its enforcement problems, is imminent. The beginnings of the "long, hot summer" in race relations already are evident. The attorney general is the nation's top civil rights strategist. He has committed himself to staying on the job through Johnson's present term. And his hands will be full of civil rights chores.

The second factor is his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whose back was broken in a plane crash last week.

Tuesday's decision threw into sharper focus Robert Kennedy's role as head of the Kennedy family since the assassination last November of his brother, President John F. Kennedy. His injured younger brother — up for re-election this fall — will add to the demands on Robert Kennedy's time. And to run in New York, he feels, would require an immediate campaign.

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda Wednesday won the first nonconfidence vote brought against him since he took office in July 1960.

By a vote of 270-164, Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party defeated the censure motion introduced by the Socialists and Communists.

WALLACE IS REBUFFED BY N.E. JAYCEES

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Delegates from Connecticut and Massachusetts rebuffed Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace as he delivered the keynote address Tuesday to the national Junior Chamber of Commerce convention.

Expressing "shock and disbelief" that Wallace would keynote the convention, the 75-member Connecticut delegation stayed away from the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

The Massachusetts delegation remained seated as some 7,500 other delegates gave Wallace a standing ovation.

SPEAKER SETS TONE

Robert E. Joyce of West Haven, Conn., said the Connecticut delegation did not object to Wallace's addressing the convention as such. But he said they were opposed to his making the keynote address.

"The function of the keynote speaker is to set the tone of the convention," the statement said.

Wallace criticized the U.S. Supreme Court in a prepared speech that was often interrupted by loud cheers. One man shouted "Go, George, go!" and several Confederate flags were waved in the audience.

JUDICIAL OLIGARCHY

The Alabama governor, who said earlier in the day that he was still actively seeking the American presidency, said recent decisions of the high court and other federal courts have resulted in a "judicial oligarchy."

He was highly critical of the new civil rights bill and re-

I look like an owl. I have already acquired a good tan, but the puffs under my eyes didn't take. They look white and puffy than ever. Heavy powder base covers the trouble, but it also hides my tan. I tried covering just the puffs but that looked splotchy. What should I do?

The answer: "Owl's eyes" are a perennial problem, not confined to women with under-eye puffs. Wearing sunglasses while sunbathing triggers the effect. You should wear sun specs, of course, for outdoor activities during the day, so as to prevent eye-strain and squint-wrinkles. But when you sun bathe—deliberately court a tan—you should take off the specs and seal the lids with wedges of dampened absorbent cotton. Use water or witch hazel as dampeners. When you apply lotion before sunning, be sure to

DOCTOR SAVED KENNEDY'S LIFE

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — An aide to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy said Tuesday night that Kennedy had no pulse and his blood pressure "was almost nonexistent" when he was brought into Cooley Dickinson Hospital early Saturday after a plane crash.

"We almost lost him," press secretary Edward Martin said. Martin credited Dr. Thomas F. Corrigan with saving the life of Kennedy, 32-year-old Massachusetts Democrat and brother of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Kennedy's administrative aide, Edward S. Moss, and the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, were killed in the crash. Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and the latter's wife, Marcella, were injured.

Kennedy is immobilized in an orthopedic bed to permit his injured back to heal. His press secretary said he will be kept in this apparatus until about July 6.

N. H. SWEEPS INSPIRES CAL. LOTTERY VOTE

CHICAGO (AP) — The state lottery, which is producing big response and bigger income for New Hampshire, generally has drawn a legislative ho-hum elsewhere in the nation.

Only California is taking steps to follow New Hampshire's lead.

FIRST DRAWING

The first drawing for the 1964 Granite State Sweepstakes in New Hampshire will be next month. Buyers' names will be drawn from a drum containing $1 million worth of tickets. Those drawn will be assigned to the 332 horses nominated for the Sept. 12 sweepstakes race at Rockingham Park race track. Subsequent drawings will be held for each additional $1 million in tickets sold.

Backers say the New Hampshire plan will swell state coffers and mollify taxpayers. "A man would rather lay a bet than pay a tax," the logic goes.

CALIFORNIA TO VOTE

Thus far only Californians have seen the logic. In November, they'll vote on a referendum to establish a state-franchised, privately operated lottery. The initiative would write a 10-year monopoly on the lottery into the state constitution in behalf of American Sweepstakes Corp. The firm would sell $2 tickets, keeping 26 cents and turning in $1.74 to the state for prizes, operating expenses and public school support.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Democratic administration opposes the measure, as do most church groups and both houses of the legislature. To defeat the scheme, California lawmakers placed their own measure on the ballot. If successful, it would make it illegal to write constitutional amendments naming any firm—profit making or not—to perform a state job.

200 Supermarkets In Md. Reopened

BALTIMORE (AP) — More than 200 Maryland supermarkets reopened after a 10-week shutdown Wednesday with striking retail clerks picketing some of them.

Meanwhile, union lawyers were in court trying to get an injunction on picketing overturned.

The 225 stores were shut April 17 when the clerks struck 57 Acme markets. Six other chains, allied with Acme in a bargaining group, closed at the same time.

Last week the seven chains announced they would reopen—six with union help, Acme with nonunion workers.

Republicans Sound Angry Protest Over LBJ's Call For 6-day Congress Week

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's call to Congress to go on a six-day work week until next month's Republican National Convention brought angry protests Wednesday from GOP House leaders.

"It just isn't fair play," said Representative Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

"This looks like an attempt by the President of the United States to sabotage the Republican convention," commented Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the GOP Platform Committee.

The committee starts its sessions in San Francisco July 6, one week before the convention opens. Many members of Congress are on the committee. Many others want to air their views before it.

COUNTED ON RECESS

Republicans had counted on the House being in recess the entire week starting July 6, with the Senate holding only token sessions.

The recess outlook has dimmed because of Johnson's reported insistence that Congress enact the civil rights bill and start action on his antipoverty program before the convention.

The President said at a news conference Tuesday he wants Congress to work longer and act on about 30 "desirable" proposals before adjournment.

He prodded the legislators to give his proposals their "full attention" six days a week until the Republican convention and then return to work after the "away now."

BOARD VOTES FUNDS TO OPEN SCHOOLS AGAIN

FARMVILLE, Va. (AP) — One of the last barriers has been cleared away for reopening public schools in Prince Edward County, closed five years ago to avoid desegregation.

The County Board of Supervisors, acting under a federal court ordered voted 4-2 Tuesday to appropriate school operating funds for this fall.

U.S. Dist. Judge Oren R. Lewis, carrying out a mandate from the U.S. Supreme Court, had given the Board of Supervisors until Thursday to act.

$100,000 FUND

The $189,000 county appropriation, plus state funds, will provide classes for about 1,600 pupils — the number of Negro school-age children in Prince Edward.

Public schools will be operated "without racial discrimination," said the board, but most white children are expected to continue classes in the private, segregated schools they have attended since 1959.

An appropriation of $375,000 was approved for tuition grants, which will go to white children attending private schools, if and when Judge Lewis lifts an injunction against continued use of the schools. The private schools had an enrollment of 1,242 for the term which began last September.

RAISED TAXES

The supervisors raised personal and real property taxes from $1 per $100 to $2.50 and doubled the 30 cents per $100 merchants capital tax. Judge Lewis had ordered the supervisors to levy taxes if necessary to raise school funds.

The County School Board had asked for $339,000. The $189,000 is less than a third of the $739,000 in state and county funds appropriated for public schools the last year the county operated them.

County School Supt. T. J. McIlwaine, said he did not know if the $189,000 voted by the supervisors would be adequate.

MUST HIRE TEACHERS

One remaining obstacle to reopening the schools is the hiring of teachers. The term begins in less than three months.

The supervisors' action was welcomed by Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr., who said, "It would appear that this represents a bona fide effort by the governing body of Prince Edward County to comply with the order of the federal court."

Negro children went without formal education for four years. Last summer a system of free schools supported by public

CAPACITY CROWD AT BENEFIT TUESDAY

A capacity crowd Tuesday evening attended the first of three benefit performances of "Arms and the Man," sponsored by the Gettysburg unit of the AAUW for the benefit of the college scholarship fund, at the Gettysburg Summer Theater, Biglerville Rd. Mrs. Robert Codori, AAUW ticket chairman, said that tickets are available for the benefit showings tonight and Thursday. The play will continue through Saturday night.

Miss Nancy Bow, 1964 Gettysburg High School graduate, as the household maid, Louisa, and Gary Bechtel, Fairfield High School teacher, both of whom made their first appearance with the summer group, were especially good.

Joseph O'Sullivan played the pompous and romantic Sergius. Richard K. Olsen played the "chocolate cream soldier," Capt. Bluntschi, whose views of the military and social customs reflect the spoofings of the author, George Bernard Shaw.

The entire cast presented a superb portrayal of the Shaw comedy, which was the basis for the famous Balkan operetta, "The Chocolate Soldier."

George Muschamp, Gettysburg College student appeared for the second season with the group, and played Major Petkoff.

FINDS RUNNING IS CONDITIONER FOR MAT WORK

NEW YORK (AP) — You don't have to be a distance runner to be a member of the wrestling team at Oregon State University but it sure does help.

Len Kauffman, who enters his senior year at the Eugene school in September, was talking about the unusual combination Tuesday night after he registered three pins during the second day of the 75th annual National AAU freestyle championships at the World's Fair.

"A year ago I didn't place in this meet at all," said the 21-year old native of Lebanon, Ore., who is studying general science. "Now I am assured of being in the finals."

CREDITS TRAINING

"And I must credit the improvement to the training program given to me by our coach, Dale Thomas.

"Every man on the squad must run two miles each morning... and against the clock. There is no loafing or easy pace.

"Then in the afternoon after classes, we work on the mats about 90 minutes. It is unusual to have one long workout a day never mind two."

"I'm not complaining, though, and neither are any of the other boys. Mr. Thomas is dedicated and a real inspiration for us. No one minds working for a man like that."

Kauffman, who was disappointed with his third place finish in last March's NCAA scored his final pin Tuesday in the fourth round in 7:30 against Joe Ingarozza of the New York A.C.

Contributions were organized. It is to end in August.

BOB KENNEDY NOT TO SEEK SENATE SEAT

By JOSEPH E. MOHABY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy began a sentimental mission to Germany Wednesday on the heels of his announcement that he will not seek the Democratic senatorial nomination in New York.

Kennedy's brief statement Tuesday on the Senate race shed no further light on his future. But it left open the door to any invitation from President Johnson to join him as vice presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket.

Thus ended long weeks of speculation whether Kennedy would accede to the urgings of New York friends and Democratic leaders, move to the Empire State and seek the nomination to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

TWO KEY FACTORS

"I deeply appreciate the loyalty and friendship of those who have urged me to run and who believe I could perform a service for the people of New York," Kennedy said in a statement handed out at the Justice Department.

"However, in fairness to them and to end speculation, I wish to state that I will not be a candidate for United States senator from New York," he said. There was little elaboration on Kennedy's statement from the Justice Department. But two key factors emerged as most important.

LONG HOT SUMMER

One is the civil rights picture. Final passage of the rights bill, with all of its enforcement problems, is imminent. The beginnings of the "long, hot summer" in race relations already are evident. The attorney general is the nation's top civil rights strategist. He has committed himself to staying on the job through Johnson's present term. And his hands will be full of civil rights chores.

The second factor is his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whose back was broken in a plane crash last week.

Tuesday's decision threw into sharper focus Robert Kennedy's role as head of the Kennedy family since the assassination last November of his brother, President John F. Kennedy. His injured younger brother — up for re-election this fall — will add to the demands on Robert Kennedy's time. And to run in New York, he feels, would require an immediate campaign.

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda Wednesday won the first nonconfidence vote brought against him since he took office in July 1960.

By a vote of 270-164, Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party defeated the censure motion introduced by the Socialists and Communists.

WALLACE IS REBUFFED BY N.E. JAYCEES

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Delegates from Connecticut and Massachusetts rebuffed Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace as he delivered the keynote address Tuesday to the national Junior Chamber of Commerce convention.

Expressing "shock and disbelief" that Wallace would keynote the convention, the 75-member Connecticut delegation stayed away from the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

The Massachusetts delegation remained seated as some 7,500 other delegates gave Wallace a standing ovation.

SPEAKER SETS TONE

Robert E. Joyce of West Haven, Conn., said the Connecticut delegation did not object to Wallace's addressing the convention as such. But he said they were opposed to his making the keynote address.

"The function of the keynote speaker is to set the tone of the convention," the statement said.

Wallace criticized the U.S. Supreme Court in a prepared speech that was often interrupted by loud cheers. One man shouted "Go, George, go!" and several Confederate flags were waved in the audience.

JUDICIAL OLIGARCHY

The Alabama governor, who said earlier in the day that he was still actively seeking the American presidency, said recent decisions of the high court and other federal courts have resulted in a "judicial oligarchy."

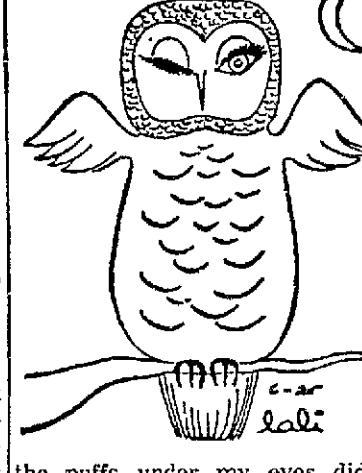

He was highly critical of the new civil rights bill and referred to the measure as "the federal penal code."

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
OWLS FLY BY. A lovely writes:

I look like an owl. I have already acquired a good tan, but the puffs under my eyes didn't take. They look whiter and puffier than ever. Heavy powder base covers the trouble, but it also hides my tan. I tried covering just the puffs but that looked splotchy. What should I do?

The Answer: "Owl's eyes" are a perennial problem, not confined to women with undereye puffs. Wearing sunglasses while sunbathing triggers the effect. You should wear sun specs, of course, for outdoor activities during the day, so as to prevent eye-strain and squint-wrinkles. But when you sun bathe—deliberately court a tan—you should take off the specs and shield the lids with wedges of dampened absorbent cotton. Use water or witch hazel as dampeners. When you apply lotion before sunning, be sure to film the undereye areas. The skin there is most delicate and needs protection. Thus the face tans uniformly. White circles already present soon take on color, once they are exposed to the sun. In the interim a creamy shadow of the contour variety and a chiffon-weight foundation would cover the problem but not the tan.

As for puffiness, sunning sometimes seems to increase swelling for a time. Cold-water compresses are the best antidote.

CREPEY THROAT AND CHIN

To firm and uplift sagging facial muscles and flesh, use my four-way method. It works wonders through corrective exercise, posture, skin care and make-up. Procedures are detailed in the leaflet, "BANISH CREPEY THROAT & CHIN." DOCTOR SAVED KENNEDY'S LIFE

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — An aide to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy said Tuesday night that Kennedy had no pulse and his blood pressure "was almost nonexistent" when he was brought into Cooley Dickinson Hospital early Saturday after a plane crash.

"We almost lost him," press secretary Edward Martin said. Martin credited Dr. Thomas F. Corriden with saving the life of Kennedy, 32-year-old Massachusetts Democrat and brother of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Kennedy's administrative aide, Edward S. Moss, and the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, were killed in the crash. Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and the latter's wife, Marcella, were injured.

Kennedy is immobilized in an orthopedic bed to permit his injured back to heal. His press secretary said he will be kept in this apparatus until about July 6.

N. H. SWEEPS INSPIRES CAL. LOTTERY VOTE

CHICAGO (AP) — The state lottery, which is producing big response and bigger income for New Hampshire, generally has drawn a legislative ho-hum elsewhere in the nation.

Only California is taking steps to follow New Hampshire's lead.

FIRST DRAWING

The first drawing for the 1964 Granite State Sweepstakes in New Hampshire will be next month. Buyers' names will be drawn from a drum containing $1 million worth of tickets. Those drawn will be assigned to the 332 horses nominated for the Sept. 12 sweepstakes race at Rockingham Park race track. Subsequent drawings will be held for each additional $1 million in tickets sold.

Backers say the New Hampshire plan will swell state coffers and mollify taxpayers. "A man would rather lay a bet than pay a tax," the logic goes.

CALIFORNIA TO VOTE

Thus far only Californians have seen the logic. In November, they'll vote on a referendum to establish a state-franchised, privately operated lottery. The initiative would write a 10-year monopoly on the lottery into the state constitution in behalf of American Sweepstakes Corp. The firm would sell $2 tickets, keeping 26 cents and turning in $1.74 to the state for prizes, operating expenses and public school support.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Democratic administration opposes the measure, as do most church groups and both houses of the legislature. To defeat the scheme, California lawmakers placed their own measure on the ballot. If successful, it would make it illegal to write constitutional amendments naming any firm-profit making or not—to perform a state job.

200 Supermarkets In Md. Reopened

BALTIMORE (AP) — More than 200 Maryland supermarkets reopened after a 10-week shutdown Wednesday, with striking retail clerks picketing some of them.

Meanwhile, union lawyers were in court trying to get an injunction on picketing overturned.

The 225 stores were shut April 17 when the clerks struck 57 Acme markets. Six other chains, allied with Acme in a bargaining group, closed at the same time.

Last week the seven chains announced they would reopen—six with union help, Acme with nonunion workers.

TODAY In History

Today is Thursday, June 25, the 177th day of 1964. There are 189 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1876, Gen. George Custer and his 7th Cavalry Regiment were massacred on the Little Big Horn River in the Black Hills country of the Montana Territory.

On this date

In 1788, Virginia ratified the Constitution.

In 1798, Congress passed the alien and sedition acts.

In 1910, the postal savings system was authorized.

TROOPS ARRIVED

In 1917, the first troops of the American Expedition Force arrived in France.

In 1944, Russian forces entered Vitebsk, the last major fortress held up by the Nazis in Russia.

Ten years ago—British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden met with President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the White House in a conference on international problems.

Five years ago—The Soviet mission to the United Nations complained that Russians had been consistently slighted in appointments to the secretariat.

One year ago—The United States, Britain and Russia initiated a treaty prohibiting nuclear testing in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water.

DR. NICHOLS WILL RETIRE

UNIVERSITY PARK—Dr. Edward J. Nichols will retire at the Pennsylvania State University on July 1 as professor emeritus of English composition.

A member of the faculty for 36 years, he was widely known as a teacher and popular among the students who over the years were enrolled in his fiction-writing course. He was chosen this year to receive the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching.

Dr. Nichols, a native of Whiting, Ind., completed his undergraduate work at the University of Chicago, received his Master of Arts degree from Columbia University, and his Doctor of Philosophy degree in American Literature from Penn State.

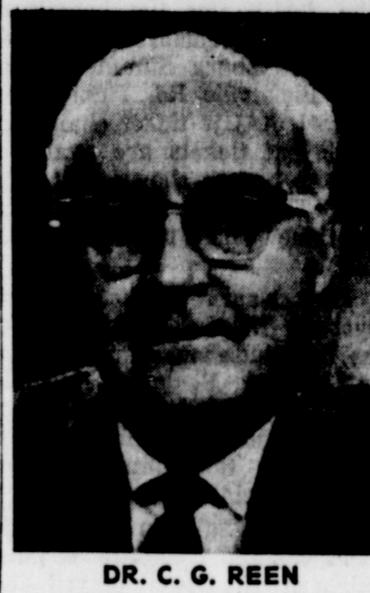

He is the author of the first book to be published by the Pennsylvania State University Press in 1958, entitled "Toward Gettysburg." It is a biography of Gen. John F. Reynolds, Civil War general, who made the decision for Union troops to stand and fight at Gettysburg. He is also author of the book "Zach Taylor's Little Army," published in 1963.

Dr. Nichols, who joined the faculty at Penn State in 1928 as instructor in English composition, plans to live permanently in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

An agronomist is an expert on crop production.

ter, Susan Panabaker, Jeanne Staub, Margaret Grim, Diane Hawan, Christine Meckley, Stephen Smith.

Dr. C. G. Reen Is Named Professor Emeritus Of Civil Engineering, PSU

DR. C. G. REEN

Dr. Calvin G. Reen, professor of civil engineering at the Pennsylvania State University, and a former member of the faculty at Gettysburg College, who will retire July 1, after nearly 22 years of service has been named professor emeritus of civil engineering by the board of trustees.

A native of Gettysburg, Reen served on the faculty of Gettysburg College from 1920 to 1942. During World War II, he became supervisor of civil engineering extension courses for the war training program at Penn State, and in 1945, he was named professor of engineering extension at the university. He became a member of the civil engineering department in 1949.

Reen received his Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Gettysburg College and his Master of Science degree from the University of Michigan.

A SPECIALIST

He has been a specialist in transportation and served as transportation consultant for the Joint State Government Commission of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Reen has served as president of the educational division of the American Road Builders' Association, the Highway Research Board, and the National Safety Council.

He served as chairman of the Traffic Commission for State College from 1953 through 1956. He will take up permanent residence in Harrisburg and will work as a traffic engineer for the consulting firm of Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, Inc.

The great day arrived and dad shot down a duck. The bird was only wounded and the elder Kidd was about to dispatch it when Brad snatched it up.

"It's hurt," said Brad. "Don't kill it. I want to take it home."

Next, Bill Kidd tried to shoot a turkey but Brad objected.

"You'll scare my duck."

The hunting trip ended at a veterinarian's office where Brad got instructions for nursing his duck back to health.

GREEK PREMIER SEES JOHNSON FOR TALKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Greek Premier George Papandreu flew into Washington Wednesday for the second chapter of President Johnson's personal diplomacy effort to find a solution for the Cyprus crisis.

Johnson hopes for further progress in two days of talks with the Greek leader, after gaining some encouragement in a similar two-day session with Turkey's Premier Ismet Inonu. Johnson's goal is direct negotiations between the disputants over the strife-torn island.

Papandreu arrived by helicopter from Williamsburg, Va., where he spent the night. Landing on the ellipse south of the White House, he sped by limousine to the south lawn of the executive mansion for welcoming ceremonies with full military honors.

The two leaders then went into conferences slated to wind up this afternoon.

Johnson and Papandreu met for about an hour and a half in their first session.

Papandreu declined comment to newsmen as he left the White House.

Young Hunter Too Sympathetic

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Nine-year-old Brad Kidd of Tallahassee had been begging for months to go hunting with his father.

The great day arrived and dad shot down a duck. The bird was only wounded and the elder Kidd was about to dispatch it when Brad snatched it up.

"It's hurt," said Brad. "Don't kill it. I want to take it home."

Next, Bill Kidd tried to shoot a turkey but Brad objected.

Dulles Will Probe Case Of Missing Men; Burned Station Wagon Is Found

By MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, flew to Mississippi Wednesday on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of three young civil rights workers.

The charred hull of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called "Bloody Neshoba" by Mississippians for its history of settling feuds by gunfire.

The FBI clamped a lid on most of its investigation.

A Mississippi highway patrolman told a newsman: "The FBI has taken over entirely."

Highway patrol units conducted a house-to-house search late into the night. More patrolmen arrived Wednesday.

Missing are Andy Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both of New York City, and James Chaney, 22, Negro from nearby Meridian.

They were last seen Sunday night in Philadelphia after Cheyney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

COORDINATE PROBE

The White House announced that President Johnson had ordered Dulles to the state to coordinate the probe.

Dulles will confer with Gov. Paul B. Johnson, other top state officials and the FBI on the progress of the investigation.

Gov. Johnson, who earlier had told a news conference the highway patrol would search relentlessly for the missing youths, said he would welcome Dulles.

"So long as Mr. Dulles is objective, I have no doubt that he will find that law and order prevail," the governor said.

The station wagon was found about 100 feet from State 21, 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, where Owl Creek backs away to form a backwater slough.

There was speculation that the bodies of the three civil rights workers were somewhere under the dark, cold waters.

CANT FIND BODIES

The station wagon was towed to a garage here and kept under guard. Two FBI laboratory technicians were to study it today.

Schwerner, who had been working in the Meridian area for several months, Chaney and Goodman were last seen about 10:30 p.m. Sunday, leaving Philadelphia in a southerly direction.

An FBI agent said the station wagon apparently was burned Sunday night or before dawn Monday.

Goodman was one of 175 out-of-state volunteers who arrived in Mississippi over the weekend to take part in Negro voter registration and education projects after training at Oxford, Ohio.

3 TV NETWORKS TO BE LOADED WITH POLITICS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — There'll be a hot time in the whole country as the three major television networks buckle down to the business of covering politics during the next five months.

All three have come to regard a presidential election year as a time to flex the muscles of their news departments, plunging into furious competition to get on camera first with a news item and in mailing big-wigs for interviews.

It is a time, too, when television experiments with some of the wondrous new electronic developments. This year's little marvel is expected to be a lightweight television camera which, free of the usual tie to an electrical outlet, can go anywhere a cameraman can walk — perhaps even into a smoke-filled room, hitherto out of sight and sound.

HUGE STAFFS

Each network is sending huge staffs and tons of equipment to the Republican convention in July and to the Democratic convention in August. Each plans to devote many hours of prime evening time to special programs, documentaries, analyses, explanations and interviews. There will even be politically orientated programs for children and for women.

A delicate job, the broadcast's special headache, will be keeping a careful balance in time and television exposure among the candidates, between the major parties.

Under the Federal Communications Act, the networks, which are exceedingly careful about what is said on the air, are prohibited from censoring the statements of any candidate. Networks or stations may, however, refuse to permit noncandidates from making statements they believe to be libelous or defamatory.

In Washington, a spokesman at the union's international headquarters said he understood that the locals had voted to reject a national contract.

"There are always these people who want to go it alone," he said. "This is true in this situation."

In Seattle, a spokesman for a program arrangers more difficult in September, when the new show season begins.

Anyway, from now until November, it will be a busy time for the network news staffs.

TO CUT ENTERTAINMENT

During the campaign months, the networks will be carrying many campaign commercials.

During the late summer and fall, many entertainment programs will be clipped short to make room for them—a situation which may not make viewers, already inundated with commercials, particularly happy.

TODAY In History

Today is Thursday, June 25, the 177th day of 1964. There are 189 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1876, Gen. George Custer and his 7th Cavalry Regiment were massacred on the Little Big Horn River in the Black Hills country of the Montana Territory.

On this date

In 1788, Virginia ratified the Constitution.

In 1798, Congress passed the alien and sedition acts.

In 1910, the postal savings system was authorized.

TROOPS ARRIVED

In 1917, the first troops of the American Expedition Force arrived in France.

In 1944, Russian forces entered Vitebsk, the last major fortress held up by the Nazis in Russia.

Ten years ago—British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden met with President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the White House in a conference on international problems.

Five years ago—the Soviet mission to the United Nations complained that Russians had been consistently slighted in appointments to the secretariat.

One year ago—the United States, Britain and Russia initiated a treaty prohibiting nuclear testing in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water.

DR. NICHOLS WILL RETIRE

UNIVERSITY PARK—Dr. Edward J. Nichols will retire at the Pennsylvania State University on July 1 as professor emeritus of English composition.

A member of the faculty for 36 years, he was widely known as a teacher and popular among the students who over the years were enrolled in his fiction-writing course. He was chosen this year to receive the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching.

Dr. Nichols, a native of Whiting, Ind., completed his undergraduate work at the University of Chicago, received his Master of Arts degree from Columbia University, and his Doctor of Philosophy degree in American Literature from Penn State.

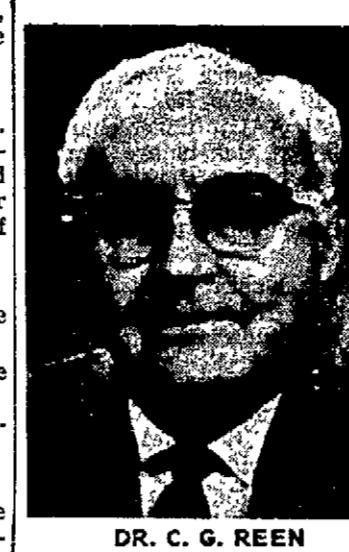

He is the author of the first book to be published by the Pennsylvania State University Press in 1958, entitled "Toward Gettysburg." It is a biography of Gen. John F. Reynolds, Civil War general, who made the decision for Union troops to stand and fight at Gettysburg. He is also author of the book "Zach Taylor's Little Army," published in 1963.

Dr. Nichols, who joined the faculty at Penn State in 1928 as instructor in English composition, plans to live permanently in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

GREEK PREMIER SEES JOHNSON FOR TALKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Greek Premier George Papandreou flew into Washington Wednesday for the second chapter of President Johnson's personal diplomacy effort to find a solution for the Cyprus crisis.

Johnson hopes for further progress in two days of talks with the Greek leader, after gaining some encouragement in a similar two-day session with Turkey's Premier Ismet Inonu.

Johnson's goal is direct negotiations between the disputants over the strife-torn island.

Papandreou arrived by helicopter from Williamsburg, Va., where he spent the night. Landing on the ellipse south of the White House, he sped by limousine to the south lawn of the executive mansion for welcoming ceremonies with full military honors.

The two leaders then went into conferences slated to wind up this afternoon.

Johnson and Papandreou met for about an hour and a half in their first session.

Papandreou declined comment to newsmen as he left the White House.

Young Hunter Too Sympathetic

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Nine-year-old Brad Kidd of Tallahassee had been begging for months to go hunting with his father.

The great day arrived and dad shot down a duck. The bird was only wounded and the elder Kidd was about to dispatch it when Brad snatched it up.

"It's hurt," said Brad. "Don't kill it. I want to take it home."

Next, Bill Kidd tried to shoot a turkey but Brad objected.

"You'll scare my duck."

The hunting trip ended at a veterinarian's office where Brad got instructions for nursing his duck back to health.

MD. ATHEIST TAKES PLANE FOR HAWAII

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Madalyn Murray, the Maryland atheist who took her family and hastily left Baltimore—"I'm convinced they're going to do me in here"—changed planes in San Francisco and left Tuesday night for Hawaii.

"I will ask the governor of Hawaii for religious asylum," the 44-year-old woman had said before she left Baltimore with her family, a dog, a cat, and one suitcase.

Traveling under an assumed name, the woman whose suit brought a U.S. Supreme Court ban on compulsory school prayer, managed the San Francisco stopover without public notice.

FAMILY INCLUDED

An airline spokesman said Wednesday the party included Mrs. Murray, her mother, brother, two sons and a daughter-in-law.

The Baltimore departure of the Murrays stemmed from a weekend fracas which followed the marriage of her son, William, 18, to Susan Abramavitz, 17. Susan's parents accused Mrs. Murray of inducing the girl to move to the Murray home and abandon her Jewish religion.

A melee broke out after police went to the Murray home to serve a contempt citation on the bride. She was accused of violating a judicial order to remain in custody of an aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Murray said police beat her up while a crowd shouted "Kill her!" and "Hit her harder!"

WHOLE FAMILY CHARGED

Except for the brother and younger son, all of the Murray family was out of jail on bond, charged among other things with assaulting police officers.

Prosecutors and bail bondsmen moved Wednesday to get them back to Maryland, with FBI help if necessary.

Robert London, an official of the firm which put bonds total-

Urge Cooperation To Avert Violence

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The head of the Pennsylvania State Police told a gathering of law enforcement officials that co-operation among police and civil rights demonstrators goes far to quench the possibility of violence.

"It behooves us as police administrators to establish liaison with the various racial and nationality groups in our communities," Col. E. Wilson Purdy said.

He addressed some 200 officials from Southwestern Pennsylvania at a seminar dealing with police responsibility in demonstrations. Sponsoring agencies were Pennsylvania State Police, Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Assn. and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

RED PREMIER AT SHIPYARD

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev mingled enthusiastically with Swedish shipyard workers here Wednesday and told them their Russian counterparts are concentrating now on freighters and fishing boats.

The Soviet Union has stopped building battleships and cruisers "which would have no real importance in a nuclear war," said the Soviet leader, whose navy has the world's biggest submarine fleet.

MODERN SHIPYARDS

Rigid security precautions had kept Khrushchev away from ordinary Swedish people during the first two days of his visit to this neutral nation, but his trip to Goteborg's ultramodern shipyards was different.

Premier Tage Erlander, his host, watched unsmilingly.

More than 5,000 are employed in the shipyards in Goteborg. The area is recognized as a Communist stronghold.

Dulles Will Probe Case Of Missing Men; Burned Station Wagon Is Found

By MICHAEL SMITH.

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, flew to Mississippi Wednesday on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of three young civil rights workers.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called "Bloody Neshoba" by Mississippians for its history of settling feuds by gunfire.

The FBI clamped a lid on most of its investigation.

A Mississippi highway patrolman told a newsman: "The FBI has taken over entirely."

Highway patrol units conducted a house-to-house search late into the night. More patrolmen arrived Wednesday.

Missing are Andy Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both of New York City, and James Cheney, 22, Negro from nearby Meridian.

They were last seen Sunday night in Philadelphia after Cheney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

COORDINATE PROBE

The White House announced that President Johnson had ordered Dulles to the state to coordinate the probe.

Dulles will confer with Gov. Paul B. Johnson, other top state officials and the FBI on the progress of the investigation.

Gov. Johnson, who earlier had told a news conference the highway patrol would search unremittingly for the missing youths, said he would welcome Dulles. "So long as Mr. Dulles is objective, I have no doubt that he will find that law and order prevail," the governor said.

The station wagon was found about 100 feet from State 21, 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, where Owl Creek backs away to form a backwater slough.

There was speculation that the bodies of the three civil rights workers were somewhere under the dark, cold waters.

CAN'T FIND BODIES

The station wagon was towed to a garage here and kept under guard. Two FBI laboratory technicians were to study it today.

Schwerner, who had been working in the Meridian area for several months, Cheney and Goodman were last seen about 10:30 p.m. Sunday, leaving Philadelphia in a southerly direction.

An FBI agent said the station wagon apparently was burned Sunday night or before dawn Monday.

Goodman was one of 175 out-of-state volunteers who arrived in Mississippi over the weekend to take part in Negro voter registration and education projects after training at Oxford, Ohio.

De Gaulle Welcomes Cambodian Prince

PARIS (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle personally welcomed Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Wednesday for a three-day state visit.

De Gaulle and the Cambodian ruler are expected to stress neutralization for Southeast Asia. Both France and Cambodia support neutralization as the only feasible solution to the war in South Viet Nam.

Goldwater Explains His Foreign Policy

The Arizona senator, now seeking the Republican nomination for the U.S. presidency, wrote to Lo Speccchio, a conservative weekly. It published the letter in its current issue.

CHARGE GIRL INTERFERED IN BOYS' ARREST

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Hulda Clark, a Negro girl who attended school in the Soviet Union, was arrested Tuesday night for allegedly interfering with police who were taking her younger brothers into custody.

Miss Clark, 17, denied the accusation early Wednesday after her release, along with her brothers, in their parents' custody.

Police said the brothers, 9 and 14 years old, were picked up for throwing firecrackers. They said Miss Clark tried to pull the boys out of a police car.

"I only asked them to wait and let me call my father downtown," Miss Clark said.

The incident occurred near the Clark home.

Miss Clark and her brothers were charged with juvenile delinquency.

Miss Clark's schooling in Moscow during 1961-62, came about after her father, William Clark, met Soviet Premier Khrushchev in 1960 when Khrushchev attended the United Nations session in New York.

Clark complained of "Jimmie Crow" education here and Khrushchev offered the daughter free schooling in the Soviet Union.

PUC TO ACT IN CONTROVERSY ON PIPELINE

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission today promised quickest possible action on resolving the stormy controversy over a 30-mile petroleum pipeline through Chester County.

Commission aides said, however, a final decision on the issue probably would take at least three months because of the vast amount of testimony and argument to be reviewed.

Opposing sides wound up their cases Tuesday climaxing months of hearings and testimony.

Attorney Fred T. Cadmus of West Chester called on the PUC to take the lead in establishing safety standards for pipeline companies, contending they now are "a no man's land" with virtually no federal or state control.

Cadmus represents Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Lang who say the pipeline across their land in Chester County is "unsafe and dangerous."

The line is part of a 1,800-mile pipeline constructed by the Colonial Pipeline Co. between Houston, Tex., and New Jersey.

ASKS LBJ TO UPSET COURT

PARIS (AP) — Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu appealed Wednesday to President Johnson to overrule the State Department and allow her to enter the United States as a visitor.

The outspoken former First Lady of South Viet Nam wrote to the President after announcement Tuesday that her request for a visa had been refused.

Mrs. Nhu, sister-in-law of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem and widow of Saigon's one-time chief of internal security, sought the visa to speak July 7 at a "truth rally" of the Conservative Party Club of Flushing, N.Y.

Embassy officials disclosed Mrs. Nhu's application for a visa had been rejected on instructions from the State Department under a section of the immigration and nationality law which bars visas for persons whose activities are considered likely to prejudice public interest or endanger the welfare, safety or security of the United States.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman has canceled a trip to St. Louis.

"I just won't be able to make it," said the 80-year-old Truman. He didn't give any reason.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Jack Benny and his wife, Mary Livingston, have another grandchild, their third.

The Benny's daughter Jean, wife of film executive Robert Blumofe, gave birth to a son Tuesday at a Hollywood hospital.

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, says teen-aged Negro hoodlums "are undercutting gains made by hundreds of Negro and white youngsters who went to jail for human rights."

Writing in the Amsterdam News, a Negro weekly newspaper, Wilkins said Negro youths involved in recent outbreaks of violence in New York City are "punks," "foul-mouthed smart alecs," and "Harlem and Brooklyn morons."

TOKYO (AP) — A Japanese port welcomed a ship built by the Chinese Communists for the first time Wednesday.

The 4,600-ton freighter Liaoyuan arrived in Tokyo with 5,000 tons of corn shipped from Tsingtao under a private trade agreement.

More than 40 diseases are transmitted by mosquito bites.

MD. ATHEIST TAKES PLANE FOR HAWAII

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Madalyn Murray, the Maryland atheist who took her family and hastily left Baltimore — "I'm convinced they're going to do me in here" — changed planes in San Francisco and left Tuesday night for Hawaii.

"I will ask the governor of Hawaii for religious asylum," the 44-year-old woman had said before she left Baltimore with her family, a dog, a cat, and one suitcase.

Traveling under an assumed name, the woman whose suit brought a U.S. Supreme Court ban on compulsory school prayer, managed the San Francisco stopover without public notice.

FAIR INCLUDED

An airline spokesman said Wednesday the party included Mrs. Murray, her mother, brother, two sons and a daughter-in-law.

The Baltimore departure of the Murrys stemmed from a weekend fracas which followed the marriage of her son, William, 18, to Susan Abramavitz, 17. Susan's parents accused Mrs. Murray of inducing the girl to move to the Murray home and abandon her Jewish religion.

A melee broke out after police went to the Murray home to serve a contempt citation on the bride. She was accused of violating a judicial order to remain in custody of an aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Murray said police beat her up while a crowd shouted "Kill her!" and "Hit her harder!"

WHOLE FAMILY CHARGED

Except for the brother and younger son, all of the Murray family was out of jail on bond, charged among other things with assaulting police officers.

Prosecutors and bail bondsmen moved Wednesday to get them back to Maryland, with FBI help if necessary.

URGES COOPERATION TO AVERT VIOLENCE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The head of the Pennsylvania State Police told a gathering of law enforcement officials that cooperation among police and civil rights demonstrators goes far to quench the possibility of violence.

"It behooves us as police administrators to establish liaison with the various racial and nationality groups in our communities," Col. E. Wilson Purdy said Tuesday.

He addressed some 200 officials from Southwestern Pennsylvania at a seminar dealing with police responsibility in demonstrations. Sponsoring agencies were Pennsylvania State Police, Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Assn. and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

RED PREMIER AT SHIPYARD

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev mingled enthusiastically with Swedish shipyard workers here Wednesday and told them their Russian counterparts are concentrating now on freighters and fishing boats.

The Soviet Union has stopped building battleships and cruisers "which would have no real importance in a nuclear war," said the Soviet leader, whose navy has the world's biggest submarine fleet.

MODERN SHIPYARDS

Rigid security precautions had kept Khrushchev away from ordinary Swedish people during the first two days of his visit to this neutral nation, but his trip to Goteborg's ultramodern shipyards was different.

Premier Tage Erlander, his host, watched unsmilingly.

More than 5,000 are employed in the shipyards in Goteborg. The area is recognized as a Communist stronghold.

ing $8,750 to get them out of jail Sunday, said the FBI would be asked to help return them to Baltimore.
